Soviets Orbit New Satellite; U.S. Disarm Sabotage Charged

OLD AND THE NEW—George Andrews, director of marketing of E. D. Bullard and Co., Sausalito, wears new style fiber glass firemen's helmet developed by the company. L.A. Firemen Blaze Trail With Lightweight Helmets

A Sausalito manufacturer has taken some of the headaches out of fire-fighting.

E. D. Bullard Co. yesterday was awarded a contract to supply the Los Angeles Fire Department with 2,850 firemen's helmets made of fiberglass and resin, shaped much like construction workers helmets and weighing only 15½ ounces each.

The City of Los Angeles will pay $15,000 for the 2,850 helmets, specially designed by the Sausalito firm.

The old style fireman's helmet, made of metal, weighs three to five pounds.

E. W. Bullard Jr., vice president of the firm, said the new headgear are the first fireman's hats to employ the standard construction type crown, in use by workers in the building trades for 14 years.

"It is the first real change in a fire hat that's ever happened in any major city," Bullard said.

Design and construction of the new helmets was worked out by the Bullard company in cooperation with the Los Angeles Fire Department. The new helmets met exacting tests, and qualify under federal and state fire fighting requirements.

They're yellow, instead of the traditional black or red.

Gone is the long rear brim which was used to shed water. It was decided that, since the firemen wear water repellant clothing anyhow, the brim should be eliminated to save weight.

Larkspur Police Break Up Two Juvenile Gangs Pledged To Crime

Two juvenile gangs that pledged their members to crime have been broken up by Larkspur police, Chief Howard Clark announced today.

One was a burglary gang, calling itself "Crime Anonymous," which apparently was in its beginning with only its two founders as members, Clark said. The two, 14-year-old boys living in Greenbrae, admitted thefts of $1,952 worth of guns, a camera, two-way radio and other items, the chief reported.

The second was a gang of six boys, 9 and 10 years old, four of whom admitted $1,160 of vandalism at the Marin Equipment Co. in Greenbrae, said Clark.

One of the 14-year-olds was booked in the county juvenile hall. The other is awaiting action by the probation office.

One of the two admitted to Larkspur police that he entered the home of Larkspur City Manager Ronald E. Piper at 124 Via La Cumbre and stole a rifle and a shotgun on Jan. 28.

He also admitted burglary of the home of Clifford A. Gerstner at 163 Via La Cumbre on Feb. 27, where $921 worth of merchandise, including a camera, shotgun and a $550 diamond ring, was taken.

Both boys admitted thefts from 13 autos, said Clark. From one car owned by Chester Smith Jr. of 330 Via La Cumbre, a $170 two-way radio was stolen.

Most recent burglary tied to the youths was theft of three shotguns and two rifles from the home of Robert W. Hampton at 55 Via Hermosa last Sunday.

Chief Clark and Patrolmen James Newbert and John Cottle found the loot in the home of one of the boys. Some had been concealed in the air vents in the hall of the house, said Clark.

Also found in the house was a "pledge of loyalty" of the gang. It read, in part:

"I furthermore agree to be an active participant in a minimum of one in every four crimes. If not I shall pay a fine of $10 to the treasury of the organization and forfeit all claims to any goods obtained as a result of the crimes committed to that date.

"I also promise my complete obedience to my superiors

Captain Is Hoping To Start Regular Ferries Next Week

Capt. Russell G. Lewis of Sausalito said today he hoped to put his Blue Horizon into regular Marin-San Francisco commuter ferry service next week on a charter basis.

About 40 rode the Blue Horizon from Tiburon to Fisherman's Wharf today, second day of a free ride service by which Lewis hoped to popularize the latest (or oldest) commute method. The Blue Horizon has approval for 50 passengers.

Lewis said he planned two schedules daily, to get commuters to San Francisco jobs at 8 and 9 a.m. He is attempting to arrange for docking facilities at the Ferry Building instead of Fisherman's Wharf, he said.

The Harbor Tug and Barge Co., operating commute runs as Showboat Transportation Co., has applied for California Public Utilities Commission to operate its boats as common carrier ferries between Tiburon and the Ferry Building.

Russ Claim America Wants Nuclear Tests

GENEVA (UPI) — The Soviet Union charged the United States today with sabotaging the nuclear test ban talks here to clear the way for resumption of American atmospheric blasts in the Pacific next month.

Chief Soviet nuclear negotiator Semyon Tsarapkin told a news conference that Secretary of State Dean Rusk was not taking a "serious" approach to the problem.

He repeated Russia's claim that international controls and inspection were completely unnecessary to police a test ban agreement. He added that the British and Americans know this.

Tsarapkin described as "impossible" President John F. Kennedy's proposal that a nuclear test ban treaty contain safeguards against secret preparations for such experiments. In response to a question, he added that he did not think the American suggestion, which Russia rejected yesterday, was "serious."

His charge that the American government was trying to torpedo the talks here came early in his news conference held at the Geneva press house.

"The Soviet Union's impression," he said, "is that the United States would like to create such a condition which would permit them to go along with their decision to resume nuclear explosions in the atmosphere."

He made his charges just after the United States and Russia moved to work out arrangements for a series of informal secret meetings at which neutral nations can obtain full details of their rival disarmament plans.

The Soviet-American action was in response to a demand from the non-aligned delegations to the general disarmament conference, led by Indian Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon.

The Indian delegation chief broached the proposal yesterday at a rump session of the eight neutral nations and proposed it formally at this morning's conference session. The idea is that the non-aligned delegations want an opportunity to quiz the Americans and Russians in an informal, off-the-record manner on details of their rival disarmament plans.

Army Seizes Control Of Guatemala

GUATEMALA CITY (UPI) — The Army today seized control of Guatemala City to halt pillaging and disorders.

An Army communique said the action was taken to safeguard the citizenry "in view of the events of recent days." At least 13 persons have been killed in the past three days in what the government has classified as "Castro-Communist subversion."

The army statement said "all measures" would be taken to halt the slaughter and property damage of recent days. It said it was exercising civil authority on orders of President Miguel Ydigoras Fuentes "to reestablish peace and tranquility."

Button Up Your Overcoat: Rain

Light rain is expected to resume tonight, spreading down into Marin County from the north and continuing into tomorrow.

Mere traces of rain were all that materialized in most parts of the county last night at points including San Rafael and Novato. Woodacre recorded .07 of an inch.

Frequent periods of showering weather were forecast today for the next five days with temperatures just a trifle below normal, and more snow due in the mountains.

U.S. LAUNCHES MOST POWERFUL ROCKET TO DATE

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The most powerful United States military rocket ever flown, the towering Titan 2, successfully passed its maiden test flight today, streaking to a south Atlantic target more than 5,000 miles away.

The success, announced by the Air Force, bolstered defense department hopes of fully developing the blockbuster weapon in about a year and gave tremendous boost to future U.S. manned and unmanned space exploration plans.

Titan 2 is ticketed as the launching vehicle for several space programs, including the two-man Gemini space capsule and the dynasoar manned bomber.

Nikita Boasts Radar Defense Is Outmoded

MOSCOW (UPI)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev warned the United States today Russia has developed a new global rocket invulnerable to anti-missile defense and rendering America's polar radar detection system obsolete.

Khrushchev coupled his rocket threat with surprise revelation that Soviet scientists today had launched into orbit a new earth satellite. The Tass News Agency said it carried instruments.

Addressing a huge Kremlin election rally at the same time foreign ministers were talking disarmament in Geneva, Khrushchev said the new Soviet missile could "fly around the world and deliver a blow on any target."

Khrushchev said the United States had wasted the vast sums of money spent on a radar system to try and intercept "our Soviet rockets coming across the Arctic."

"Rockets can now fly from quite a different direction from that in which the radar has been aimed," he said.

Shaking his fist, Khrushchev said Americans do not understand how vulnerable they have become.

"The logical means of warning is disarmament," he said. "The logical thing is to disarm and sign the treaty. I repeat, there is no real way of warning."

The premier's declarations were interpreted as a means of massive Soviet pressure on the West at the time of the Geneva talks.

Khrushchev's speech, delivered before 6,000 in the Kremlin Palace of Congresses, precedes next Sunday's balloting for the USSR Supreme Soviet.

The announcement that a new space vehicle was in orbit and had at that time circled the earth three times was made early in the talk.

Khrushchev did not say whether or not it was manned, but later Tass revealed it carried instruments, a radio telemetric system and transmitter. Tass added that a series of artificial satellites will be launched from different "cosmodromes" in the course of 1962.

Speaking of the German problem, Khrushchev said a peace treaty must be concluded but he said there was no "fatal date" when it had to occur.

Search On For Airliner Lost Over Pacific – 107 Aboard

CLARK AIR FORCE BASE, Philippines (Saturday) (UPI)—Planes and ships scoured Pacific air routes from Guam to the Philippines in pre-dawn darkness today without finding a trace of a chartered airliner which disappeared with 107 persons aboard, including 93 American soldiers en route to embattled South Viet Nam.

The Flying Tiger line superconstellation, last heard from about an hour and a half after it took off from Guam for Clark Air Force Base Thursday night, almost certainly crashed into the Pacific with a probable loss of all on board. Its gas supply ran out at 8:22 a.m. today Guam time.

If the 93 GI's, three South Vietnamese soldiers and 11 crew members, including four stewardesses, have been killed, this will bring the death toll for March in crashes of commercial, military and chartered planes around the world to almost 350 persons.

The outlook was grim. More than 30 planes and half a dozen surface vessels criss-crossed 42 square miles of ocean by day and by night without finding any sign of wreckage life rafts or survivors.

The plane vanished after its pilot, Capt. Gregory Thomas, of Redd Bank, N.J., radioed his last position as slightly northeast of the seven-mile-deep Mariana trench on the floor of the Pacific.

He was then 300 miles west of Guam and 1,200 miles east of the Philippines, flying on time and on course with about eight hours of fuel left in his tanks.

In Washington, federal air safety experts said the disappearance of the flying tiger plane may never be solved.

However, Army Secretary Elvis Stahr said a maximum search effort was being made.

Gordon Strawbridge To Run For County Treasurer-Tax Collector

Former Mill Valley Mayor Gordon Weld Strawbridge, 61, who at one time was rumored as possible candidate for county clerk, announced yesterday he will run for treasurer-tax collector in June.

This means a four-way race for the post now held by veteran M. F. Donohue, who will retire at the end of this year.

Those who have already announced include Lucien D. Miller and Stanley J. Fontez of the auditor's office and Russell Lauterwasser, Larkspur contractor and former city clerk-tax collector.

Another aspirant who took out petition of candidacy for a top county post yesterday is Mayor Wayne Womack of Novato, who will run against Supervisor William Gnoss of District 5. Womack's announcement had been expected. He had indicated earlier that he would run for the supervisor's job.

Strawbridge's announcement came as a mild surprise because political speculators were not sure what post he would seek.

GORDON W. STRAWBRIDGE
Fourth out for treasurer

A native of Philadelphia, Strawbridge was graduated from Haverford College and attended Harvard Business School. He has been in the bookstore, stationery and printing business since 1932, but is now retired. He formerly operated Strawbridge's Stationery in Mill Valley and the Marin Printer in Sausalito.

During World War II, he was lieutenant commander in the Coast Guard Reserve.

Strawbridge was a Mill Valley city councilman from 1948 to 1954, serving as mayor the last two years. He was on the Board of Freeholders which prepared a proposed county charter in 1958, and is a member of the Tiburon-Belvedere Democratic Club.

He served on the Mill Valley Library Board and headed Mill Valley drives for the United Fund and American Cancer Society.

He is associated with the American Friends Service Committee, American Civil Liberties Union and San Francisco Yacht Club, and has been a member of the Mill Valley American Legion, United World Federalists, and the San Rafael Typographical Union.

He lives at 1921 Mar West in Tiburon.

Death Of 6 Babies By Salt Confirmed

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The state health commissioner confirmed today that the death of six babies in the Binghamton General Hospital was caused by salt poisoning.

The commissioner said the judgment was based on findings of a department team investigation after salt was discovered in a sugar can in the formula room.

Carpenter Next Space Pilot —He Would Give His Life

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Malcolm Scott Carpenter, selected suddenly as America's next space pilot, has said often that the conquest of space is an adventure he's willing to give his life for.

The risks, he says, are far overshadowed by the challenge, the chance to be a pioneer in manned exploration of the universe.

Carpenter, 36, a Navy commander, was picked yesterday to ride the next Project Mercury capsule into orbit. His selection by Mercury officials followed disclosure that the designated pilot, Air Force Maj. Donald K. Slayton, has heart trouble.

Carpenter's flight is intended to be similar to John H. Glenn Jr.'s three-times-around-the-world orbit on Feb. 20. It is scheduled for some time in May. Carpenter was Glenn's backup pilot and worked closely with him for months.

This nation's next space pilot has dreamed often of traveling into the unknown void of space.

"Riding the centrifuge," Carpenter says, "I imagine sometimes that I'm not in the flight simiulator at all, but in the very capsule itself.

"There can be no substitute, though, for the thrilling reality of the moment when the astronaut realizes he's finally in a good orbit. It will be a moment when he can start to appreciate some new and wonderful sensations."

With four children, the handsome, Colorado-born Carpenter has the largest family of the astronaut team. The children are Mark Scott, 12; Robyn Jay, 8; Kristine Elaine, 6; and Candace Noxon, 5. A fifth child died in 1951 at 6 months.

Carpenter's attractive wife Rene shares his space role intimately. When they are separated for long periods by his rigorous training program, they write long letters. He tells in detail of the progress of Project Mercury and Rene says he once sent her 17 pages.

They long ago learned to live with the prospect of danger in his job. Rene recalls a time when she wasn't so adjusted. She said that when he was a test pilot at Patuxent, Md., she became extremely nervous whenever he didn't show up at 6 o'clock on the dot for dinner.

But they often discussed the perils involved and now spend little time worrying about them.

REPLACEMENT—Heart trouble has forced astronaut Donald K. Slayton (right) out of the next U.S. manned space flight. He has been replaced by Navy pilot M. Scott Carpenter (left). (AP Wirephotos)

Heart Condition Grounds Slayton

WASHINGTON (AP) — A heart condition detected more than two years ago will keep astronaut Donald K. Slayton from becoming the next American to venture into space.

On learning he had been scratched the Air Force major, 38, said "I'm very disappointed to say the least."

The space agency said the heart trouble was detected in November 1959, but it was decided to keep the former jet pilot in the program while keeping a close watch on his condition.

While Slayton was disqualified, a space agency spokesman said he was "still a member of the Mercury program at this time." Further study of his condition will determine whether or not he will continue in it, the spokesman said.

After hearing that he had been replaced Slayton called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slayton, in Sparta, Wis., his hometown.

Mrs. Slayton said she felt sorry for her son. "I know he had his heart set on this, and it is difficult to come so close and not make it."

But the astronaut's father, 74, said he was relieved. He said he had advised his son, "don't let it get you down."

Two Top U.S. Reds Arrested

NEW YORK (AP)—Two top-ranking American Reds, Gus Hall and Benjamin J. Davis, have been arrested in the first crackdown on Communist party officials who refuse to register the party with the government under the Subversive Activities Control Act.

Hall

They were allowed to go free overnight, but were ordered to post bail of $5,000 each today.

Hall, 51, and Davis, 58, were arrested by U.S. marshals late yesterday at the American Communist party headquarters in the Chelsea section of Manhattan. The arrests were made on warrants shortly after a federal grand jury in Washington indicted the men on six counts each.

Hall was listed as the Communist party's general secretary and Davis as national secretary. Davis, a Negro, was a member of the New York City Council years ago when a short-lived proportional representation system made it possible for a candidate of such a minority party to get elected.

Davis

Both Hall and Davis have served prison terms on Smith Act convictions for conspiracy to teach and advocate overthrow of the government by force and violence.

Wash Machine Butter

SIBLEY, Iowa (AP) — Farmers in northwest Iowa can't get their milk to market because of snow-clogged roads.

One farm wife is meeting the situation by using her washing machine to churn cream from the milk into butter.

Mrs. Peter Steensma, who lives on a farm near here, first tried a 15-gallon batch but found it was too much for the washing machine. Now she's using the cream in 10-gallon batches.

Senate Expenses

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Senate voted yesterday to cut members' daily expense allowance from $25 to $20, but to increase their transportation allowance from 12 and one-half to 15 cents a mile for between-session committee work.

The object: to avoid detailed accounting on federal income tax reports.

Toaster Death

DETROIT (AP)—The electric toaster was bright and shiny. Two-year-old Jeffery A. Goudeseune climber up on a kitchen chair in his suburban Nankin township home to see the toaster at close range.

Jeffery saw his own reflection. Leaning over a metal border around a formica counter, he kissed his reflection.

Jeffery fell dead. A coroner's verdict held it accidental electrocution.

ROME (AP)—A bus carrying 40 American tourists collided with a truck south of Rome today and 10 of the Americans were injured, three of them seriously.

The Americans were on their way from Rome to Naples to take a boat to the Isle of Capri.

She Can't Win

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—"Sweet Emma the Bell Gal" says she doesn't trust banks.

The Negro jazz pianist, 64, whose real name is Emma Barrett, lost her life savings of $2,500 in December when a man grabbed a shopping bag in which she carried the money.

A few weeks later friends and fans threw a benefit concert and raised another nest egg.

Last night she was robbed again. She said a man took $1,000 cash and two checks amounting to $225.

Yanks Hurt In Crash

The news agency said the 10 Americans have been hospitalized with "bruises" at Wadi Halfa.

Coldest weather clung to eastern sections of the northern Plains and in parts of the central and northern Rockies. Temperatures ranged from zero into the teens.

U.S. Is Sending Out Stock Queries To All Nation's Brokerage Firms

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Securities and Exchange Commission announced today it is quizzing all of the nation's 5,750 brokerage firms about dealings in 200 stocks.

The mammoth inquiry—part of a larger study of the entire securities industry — will yield the first detailed picture of exactly what goes on in the over-the-counter market. It is in this loosely organized market that brokers and investors trade in securities outside the regular stock exchanges.

Milton H. Cohen, director of the SEC's industry study, said a special questionnaire is being mailed to all brokerage houses "to obtain general information about the growth and size of the over-the-counter market and specific data as to transactions in that market." The completed questionnaires must be returned by April 9.

The SEC hopes, through an analysis of the questionnaires, to find out how many shares and how much money change hands in the market and how many brokers participate.

It also wants to know if it takes a large volume of trading to produce noteworthy price changes, and if brokers are over-charging customers on over-the-counter trades.

These trades are negotiated between the buyer and the seller—usually with brokers acting as their agents. In many cases, brokers help to make the market by buying and selling securities for their own account.

The questionnaires note that it is a criminal offense to submit false information to a federal government agency.

They go on to ask for a list of every over-the-counter trade in 115 active stocks on a single day—last Jan. 18. Brokers must disclose prices, commissions and markups. They need not identify individual customers involved.

The 115 stocks include many prominent issues, among them American Airlines, Anheuser-Busch, Bank of America, General Telephone and Electronics, Hartford Fire Insurance, Lockheed Aircraft, Pacific Power and Light, Pocket Books, Royal Dutch Petroleum and Wisconsin Power and Light.

Science Wants To Hit Moon With Red Light

WASHINGTON (AP) — American scientists are planning soon to beam a powerful red light at the moon, hoping it will be reflected back to earth.

Although theoretically the beam would be strong enough to be visible for 20 million miles, the scientists say little of the experiment will actually be seen.

People living near the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor—where the experiment will be conducted—may see the beam as a spectacular red needle in the sky. But they will have to look sharp, for the light will dart out in pulses of a fraction of a second.

The hope is, said physicist Peter A. Franken of the university staff, that some of the beam can be bounced off one of the moon's highly reflective craters—making a round trip between the earth and moon in 2½ seconds.

All this, he said in a report prepared for the Optical Society of America, amplified at a news conference, will be part of an experiment to explore further possible uses of devices called "Lasers."

"Laser" stands for "light amplification by stimulated emission of radiation." It is an experimental instrument to amplify and sharpen relatively weak waves of light to produce a very narrow, powerful beam.

Wing Commander Named At HAFB

Col. William S. Harrell today was named commander at Hamilton Air Force Base and of the 78th Fighter Wing.

Col. William F. Barns, deputy commander at Hamilton, will be temporary commander until Harrell arrives about July 1, it was announced at 28th Air Division headquarters.

Col. Harvey E. Henderson, who has been commander for the past two years, was assigned to a post in Laos on March 3. However, he will not leave for his new assignment until late in April.

Colonel Harrell was assigned to the San Francisco Air Defense Sector Headquarters at Beale Air Force Base in November, 1960—first as director of operations and later as vice commander. He is familiar with the role of the 78th Fighter Wing in the air defense of the Bay Area.

The new commander had a previous tour of duty at Hamilton. He served at the Marin base in 1958-60 as assistant deputy for operations of Western Air Defense Force.

Harrell was born in Selma, Ala., Oct. 25, 1920. He attended the University of Alabama before entering the Army Air Corps as an aviation cadet in 1941.

He served in the China-Burma-India theater during World War II. He completed 158 combat missions as a fighter pilot and was credited with destroying two enemy aircraft. For this he received the silver star, Distinguished Flying Cross with two oak leaf clusters, and the Air Medal with two oak leaf clusters.

After the war he served with the 18th Fighter Group and the 51st Fighter Group in the Philippines and Okinawa. Then came staff assignments at Wright-Paterson Air Force Base and at Headquarters, U.S. Air Force. He also commanded the 406th Fighter-Interceptor Group in England.

The new commander has completed air command and staff college. Two advanced jet fighter course and the Air College.

He and his wife, Marian, have three children, Cynthia, 16, William, 13, and Elizabeth, 10.

$34,000 Allocated For Paradise Park

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A $34,000 fund was allocated yesterday afternoon by the state Wildlife Conservation Board for reconstruction of the pier at Marin's Paradise Beach county park into a public fishing pier.

The project, which will be ready to go to bid as soon as final planning is completed, calls for replanking the old Navy Net Depot Annex pier on the east shore of Tiburon peninsula after damaged pilings have been replaced. It also involves construction of railings and seating facilities on the pier for fishing use, and other safety factors.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, Southern Marin Supervisor Peter Behr, and Helen Newman, chairman of the county parks and recreation commission, testified before the board.

The project as now planned does not include a boat launching ramp to which there had been objections by residents of the area.

The agreement provides that the county supervisors will take over the pier and operate it free to the public on completion of the project.

Choral Concert Scheduled Tuesday

Three choral groups from University of California at Berkeley will present a varied concert at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Olney Hall in Kentfield.

The program is part of a College of Marin concert and lecture series. It is entitled "An Evening of Song," and will range from folksongs to major choral works of Mahler, Mozart, Brahms, and Antonio Lotti.

Director Robert Paul Commanday will lead the Treble Clef Society, a women's concert choir; the mixed-voice Madrigal Singers; and the Men's Octet. The First group is the oldest musical aggregation on the U.C. campus, having been founded as the "Ladies' Mandolin Society" in 1870.

No Highway Bids Planned Until Summer

The State Division of Highways does not plan to call for bids on a new Highway 101-37 interchange structure until summer, so no special meeting of the Novato City Council will be needed to delay the award.

Mayor Wayne Womack has announced that Daniel J. Aughney, co-chairman of the Novato Chamber of Commerce freeway committee, had received a letter to this effect from J. C. Womack, state highway engineer.

Fearing the bids were to be called next month, the city council Tuesday night instructed City Atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. to write the division of highways asking they be delayed. The mayor was authorized to call a special meeting to approve the letter.

Novato wants the division to hold up the interchange until selection of a new Highway 101 route bypassing the city.

30 Church Essays Are Published

A volume of 30 essays on the dilemma of the city church edited by Dr. Robert Lee, faculty member at San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo, has just been published by Westminster Press.

Entitled "Cities and Churches, Readings on the Urban Church," it is designed to provide in one volume some of the important recent writings of nationally known authorities on urban church problems.

Dr. Lee, director of the Institute of Ethics and Society at the seminary, is the author of "Social Sources of Church Unity, An Interpretation of Unitive Movements in American Protestantism," and "The Place of Religion in an Urban Civilization."

Posada parties are the heart of pre-Christmas celebrations in Mexico. Posada means "lodging."

THREE HITS, TWO INJURIES IN COMMUTER CRASH

The Volkswagen in foreground, en route from San Francisco to Petaluma with Miss Barbara M. Keegal (on stretcher), Petaluma school teacher, at the wheel, went out of control as it descended the California Grade just south of San Rafael at 7:35 a.m. today. It spun into southbound traffic, was hit on left rear by sedan driven by Harlene Simmons of 209 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia; then smashed headon by station wagon (left center) driven by Albert Doerig Jr. of 491 Ridge Road, Novato, then hit again by sedan driven by Onus Malcolm Comer of 1033 Fifth Street, Novato. Miss Keegal suffered fractured shoulder, possible pelvic fracture and many cuts and bruises, and was in fair condition later at San Rafael General Hospital. Comer suffered slight back injury. Doerig and his wife, wearing seat belts, were unharmed. (Independent-Journal photo)

John B. Long, Former CNPA Aide, Dies

SAN MARINO (AP)—John B. Long Jr., 67, who retired Feb. 15 after serving 34 years as general manager of the California Newspaper Publishers Association, died at his home Thursday night.

The family physician said death was due to a heart attack. Long has been in poor health for several years.

In Sacramento, Gov. Brown issued a statement saying:

"John Long's death grieves me. He was a fine man and an ardent defender of one of the people's basic rights, the right to know.

"In his long career in California journalism, he worked tirelessly for better newspapers."

Long was born in Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Long became telegraph editor for the Des Moines, Iowa, Register and after that was city editor of the Omaha, Neb., Bee just before coming to California.

I-J Office Broken Into In San Rafael

An office of the Independent-Journal was broken into sometime Wednesday night, Julian Leone, circulation manager told San Rafael police yesterday.

Police said entry was gained through an unlocked rear outside door. Inside the building, the lock was broken on the door to a room containing premium merchandise. It was not immediately determined if anything was missing, Leone said.

Lack Of Quorum

The Sausalito Recreation Commission did not meet last night, as scheduled, because of lack of a quorum, chairman John R. Minton said today.

whether in a meeting or during a crime and to carry out their instructions to the end."

The two youths picked up by police were listed as the co-chairmen on the pledge form.

Members of the second gang told police that to gain admittance "you have to be punched in the stomach three times and steal one article."

Some of the boys in that gang live in the Golden Gate Trailer Court in Greenbrae and some in Corte Madera, Clark said.

Four of the youths admitted breaking glass and windows of cars and trucks parked in the Marin Equipment Co. on March 7, he said. They also admitted thefts of baseball gloves, a pellet pistol and other items from the Corte Madera Shopping Center.

The six youths were awaiting action from the probation office.

Site Of Hearing On NWP Petition Changed By ICC

Interstate Commerce Commission's hearing on Northwestern Pacific Railroad's San Rafael abandonment petition next Thursday will be held in the San Francisco Federal Building, the ICC announced today.

The hearing had been scheduled for the New Mint Building at 9:30 a.m. but has been changed to the Federal Building at 50 Fulton Street at the same hour.

After next Thursday's session, it will be recessed a week, resuming the following Thursday at 9:30 a.m. at the Whitcomb Hotel.

Hurt In Blast

Anthony Branger of the Golden Gate Trailor Court, Greenbrae, was treated at Marin General Hospital for first and second degree burns today after his stove blew up in his trailer about 8 a.m. The trailer was only slightly damaged.

OBITUARIES

Charles L. Spaletta Succumbs

Charles L. Spaletta, longtime Marin County rancher, died today in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness. He was 66.

He was born Nov. 30, 1895, in Arcata, Humboldt County. For many years he grew grain on large acreage near Sears Point. In 1937 he switched to dairying on the Petaluma-Point Reyes Road.

For many years he was a trustee of the Lincoln School District.

He was a lifetime member of the Red Bluff chapter of Knights of Columbus, a member of Nicasio Parlor of Native Sons of the Golden West, and of the Marin-Sonoma Swiss Club, and a founder of the Pacific Breeders Co-op.

He is survived by his wife, Edith, at the home at 522 Western Avenue, Petaluma; five sons, James of Inverness; Charles W., Domingo, Henry W. and John P. of Petaluma; two daughters, Mrs. Barbara Fomasi of Sebastopol and Mrs. Helen Smith of Petaluma; five sisters, Mrs. Judith Afflick of Long Beach; Mrs. Alice Harper of Chico; Mrs. Mary Merrick of Oakland, and Condina Spaletta, Mrs. Grace O'Brien and Mrs. Augusta Thompson of Vina, Tehama County; three brothers, William of Reno, Nev.; John C. of Petaluma, and Cero of Corning, Tehama County, and six grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Redwood Chapel, Novato.

EDNA WILT

Funeral services for Mrs. Edna Wilt, 68, wife of Fred Wilt of Mill Valley, will be conducted at 3 p.m. tomorrow. She died in a local hospital Wednesday after a three-month illness.

The services will be at Ashley and McMullen's, 4200 Geary Boulevard. Interment will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

A native of Minnesota, she lived in San Francisco with her husband before they moved to Mill Valley about 12 years ago. Wilt, of 108 Miller Avenue, retired from the candy business in San Francisco in 1954.

R. CAMPODONICO

Funeral services will be held in San Francisco tomorrow morning for Rudolph Campodonico, 49, president of Belfast Beverage Inc., who died of a heart attack in San Francisco Wednesday.

Campodonico was the father of Mrs. Iris Pera of San Rafael. He leaves a son, James, in San Francisco, and three brothers, Albert of San Francisco and Angelo and Richard of Atherton.

A Mass of Requiem is scheduled for 10 a.m. tomorrow at St. Vincent de Paul Church, Green and Steiner Streets, San Francisco. Entombment will be at Holy Cross Mausoleum, Colma. Rosary is set for 8 o'clock tonight at Halsted and Co., San Francisco.

A native of San Francisco, Campodonico took over the beverage company from his father, the late Angelo Campodonico Sr. He was stricken at his home Wednesday.

ROSE DE MARTINI

Mrs. Rose Marie De Martini, 69, wife of Fred De Martini, died at her home at 239 Linden Lane, San Rafael, yesterday.

She had been under a doctor's care for some time and had suffered a number of strokes.

Mrs. De Martini was born in San Francisco and lived there until she and her family moved to San Anselmo in 1922. They returned to San Francisco in 1932 and moved back to Marin in 1941, settling in San Rafael.

Besides her husband, an engineer for Schwabacher Frey Printing Co. in San Francisco, she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Verna Ziemer of San Rafael; two sons, Henry and Raymond Kirner of Santa Venetia; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Radieve of San Anselmo and Mrs. Adele Lagarmasino of San Francisco, and 10 grandchildren.

Requiem High Mass will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. Monday at St. Raphael's Church, San Rafael. The cortege will form at Keaton's Mortuary at 9:15 a.m. Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Sunday at the Keaton chapel. Interment will be private.

AUDREY REYNOLDS

Funeral services for Audrey Belle Reynolds, 71, sister of Mrs. Zora McAtee of Sausalito, were scheduled today in Healdsburg.

Mrs. Reynolds died Wednesday in a San Francisco hospital after long illness. Her home was in Geyserville, but she had spent the past two years in San Francisco.

Besides her sister in Sausalito, she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Jean Merlee Graham of San Francisco; three other sisters and a brother, Mrs. Dorothy Rawson of Santa Clara; Mrs. Arlene Hudson of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Oris Fairhurst of San Pedro, and Kermit C. Combes of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and two grandchildren.

DR. CHARLES L. McCLAIN
Plans week of services

Evangelistic Services Set In San Rafael

Dr. Charles L. McClain, immediate past president of California Southern Baptists, will start a week of evangelistic services Sunday at the First Baptist Church at 1411 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael.

All services through the week will start at 7:30 p. m. except that the regular Sunday schedule will be followed March 18 and 25. There will be a "family dinner" with an address by Dr. McClain Wednesday.

Dr. McClain will speak over radio KTIM at 4:30 p.m. Sunday, on "A Light Unto My Path."

The observation is in cooperation with a Baptist Jubilee Advance program in which thousands of churches of seven major Baptist groups will engage throughout the United States.

Library Sets Open House In Mill Valley

There will be an open house at the Mill Valley Public Library April 8 from 3 to 6 p.m. as part of the celebration of the library's receipt of the Dorothy Canfield Fisher Award.

The award, sponsored by the Book of the Month Club, is being presented simultaneously to nine U.S. cities. It is the first time since the award was founded in 1959 that a California city has been a recipient.

The $1,000 award and a plaque will be presented at the Outdoor Art Club by Mrs. Carma Leigh, California state librarian. There will be an art exhibit, music and refreshments.

A subscription dinner will be held at 6 p.m. at the club. Guests to be present will include four authors, Nathan Asch and Richard H. Dillon, both of Mill Valley; Mark Schorer, a professor at University of California, and Wesley Noble of Reno.

Dinner reservations may be made either through the public library or through Mrs. John Farnam of 35 Buena Vista Avenue, according to Mrs. G. Donald Schlemmer, publicity chairman.

Water District Board Awards Two Contracts

Two contracts were awarded by Marin Municipal Water District directors Wednesday.

Beasley Engineering Co.'s bid of $24,372 was accepted for installation of 3,060 feet of 20-inch pipe in the Ross-Greenbrae line. Painting two five million gallon balancing tanks near White's Hill went to D. E. Burgess for $66,950. Both are San Francisco firms.

'GET UP, JENS—CUSTOMERS COMING'

Jens Rytter of Corte Madera (right), partner in Copenhagen, House of Denmark Furniture, relaxes with magazine in showroom of new store at 509 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael. But partner Tage Kristensen of Terra Linda (left) says it's no time to relax: there are still things to do before store opens to public tomorrow morning. The San Rafael store is the first branch opened by the firm, which has headquarters in San Francisco.

House Passes $325-Million Welfare Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has passed a 325-million-dollar welfare bill, including a 140-million-dollar boost in relief payments which was not sought by President John F. Kennedy.

The bill makes a series of administration-sponsored changes in the federal-state welfare program.

It passed the House yesterday on a 319-69 roll call vote. Before sending it to the Senate, the House rejected, 231 to 156, a Republican-backed move to lop off the extra relief payments.

That provision would revise the federal-state formula for payments financing relief of aged, disabled and blind persons. The net effect would be an increase of about $4 monthly in the federal contribution. It would increase the top possible federal-state payment to $70 a month, at a total price tag of 140 million dollars.

Republicans also objected to a provision boosting from 50 to 75 per cent the federal matching grants for state programs aimed at rehabilitation and self-sufficiency for people on relief rolls. But there was no formal move to eliminate that section.

Nixon Charges Blackmail

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Richard M. Nixon has accused Gov. Edmund G. Brown of trying to blackmail Republican assemblymen into voting to put two bond issues on the June 5th primary election ballot.

Nixon said Brown, who seeks re-election, doesn't want to share the November ballot with $920 million in state bond issues.

The former vice president, who hopes to be on that ballot as the GOP nominee for governor, said yesterday in a statement issued in Los Angeles that Brown is "threatening assemblymen with reprisals if they vote their convictions."

The Assembly GOP Caucus voted last week to oppose Brown's plan to put 470 million dollars in bonds on the June ballot. Brown would need at least 10 Republican votes in the assembly to do it, since it requires a two-thirds majority.

Nixon said the blackmail was revealed when Brown stated at a press conference this week: "I think there are enough fair-finded Republicans, who have needs in their own counties, that when they get the facts they will vote for the June bond issues."

A spokesman for Governor Brown said he interpreted the remark to mean that the Republican assemblymen will not vote against their own interests once they know what their interests are.

Brown claims that the Republicans did not know when they voted for their caucus position that delaying the bond issues to November would delay school and college construction projects in their own districts.

Nixon said the GOP believes all the bond issues should be on the November ballot — when most voters will turn out—so they can look at the whole package.

"Governor Brown is either confused himself or he is deliberately trying to confuse the people," Nixon said. "He can not go around this state proclaiming California is in great shape financially and then turn around and say that the state will run out of money for school construction if the school bonds are not approved in June rather than in November."

Hamilton Names Airman Of Month

A/1C Edward J. Dodge was named airman of the month for February at Hamilton Air Force Base.

This is the fifth time that Dodge has won this honor. He was picked because he has completed many Armed Forces Institute and extension courses offered to the military. These include the fields of criminal investigation, psychological warfare and the LaSalle College course in American law and procedure.

Dodge, who works at the 28th Air Division judge advocate's office, served in the Marine Corps prior to joining the Air Force.

He and his wife live in Daly City.

Jail For 6 Months

Eric Warren Nelson, 21, has been sentenced in Marin County Superior Court to six months in jail, with work furlough privileges, for possessing marijuana. Tuesday's Independent-Journal erroneously reported the sentence as 60 days.

Water Color Show At Phoenix Gallery

Paintings by Eliot O'Hara are being shown at the Phoenix Gallery in Sausalito through April.

The watercolorist from Washington, D.C., will also be in the Bay Area—Sausalito, San Francisco and San Jose—in April and May to teach water color classes. Those persons interested in the classes may see Lyn Wood at the gallery at 102 Caledonia Street or at her home at 519 Caledonia.

Showing in the gallery's little show room are works by Jerry Edlund, Nick Nickolds, Gwen Stone, and Ned Pankin.

National Guard Major Who Tried To Set Up Spy Ring Resigns Post

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The resignation of Maj. Dana R. Backus, a California National Guard reserve officer who tried to organize an anti-subversive spy ring, has been announced by State Adjutant Gen. Roderic Hill.

General Hill said yesterday that Backus resigned without prejudice, but an investigation of the unauthorized counter-intelligence or espionage activity will continue.

The investigation was ordered after Mrs. Helen Wysong of Alhambra said she had been sworn into a spy group at a meeting arranged by Backus.

Hill, in a report to Gov. Edmund G. Brown, said he was approached by Backus last Sept. 25 at a drill of the 40th Armored Division in Los Angeles.

"He said he had participated in a meeting of the so-called 'Minutemen' and had seen and handled their automatic weapons," Hill said.

The general said he referred the matter to the FBI and to George Brereton, chief of the Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation of the State Justice Department.

"It is my understanding that the FBI investigated and that Mr. Brereton discussed this with Major Backus and that Major Backus was asked to report from time to time on other activities of the Minutemen."

Hill said Backus told Col. Robert L. Quick, state inspector general, who is handling the probe, that the meeting with Mrs. Wysong was in connection with his activities for the CII.

"However, the meeting was eight days before he approached me with the report on automatic weapons and nearly one month in advance of his first contact with the State Department of Justice," Hill said.

Backus, Hill said, also admitted permitting a member of the Minutemen to address his reserve batallion.

Hill quoted him as saying he did this to gain the confidence of the guerrilla organization.

Hill said Backus' efforts to organize a spy hunt was not a violation of the law, but "was clearly beyond the limits of his authority."

Mrs. Kennedy Floats Down Ganges Like 'Queen Of U.S.'

UDAIPUR, India (UPI) — Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, looking like the "American queen" the Indians have nicknamed her, floated down the Ganges in a white launch today and watched Hindus bathing at the banks of the sacred river.

Wearing a brilliant sleeveless sheath dress of shocking pink, the first lady sat on an overstuffed green chair while an attendant shaded her from the sun with a parasol. The boat was decorated with marigolds.

The Ganges boat ride was in Benares, holiest of Indian cities.

Then she went on to this foothill city where she received the biggest reception of her Indian tour. She will be the guest here of the Maharana of Udaipur, who was one of the highest ruling princes of British-ruled India.

On the trip down the Ganges, Mrs. Kennedy sat facing sideways between Indian Ambassador to the United States B. K. Nehru, who wore a pitch helmet, and Benares' Mayor K. B. Gupta.

She sat directly beneath a large white parasol with gold-fringed border, held by an attendant in white turban, white tunic and red sash.

Thousands of Indians lined the broad river banks. Only a relatively few of the pilgrims were taking dips in the greenish muddy waters, but those stood up to their necks to be "purified."

Intoxicated Driver Gets Fine, Probation

Daniel Roscoe Porter, 42, of 11 Merrydale Road, San Rafael, drew $166 fine and six months probation yesterday for drunken driving.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court sentenced Porter for driving while intoxicated along Highway 101 in San Rafael last Jan. 27.

Disaster Training Class Graduates

The first nuclear medical distaster training class for non-commissioned officers graduated last week after 32 hours of instruction at Hamilton Air Force Base.

S/Sgt. William G. Madrigal of the 78th Air Force Hospital instructed the course. Col. C. F. Neilsen, 78th Air Force hospital executive officer, gave the graduates their completion certificates.

U.N. Rejection Seen For Demand By Cuba

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) —The Security Council was expected to reject today Cuba's demand for an international court review of its expulsion from the Organization of American States.

The 11-nation council scheduled its third meeting on Cuba's sixth effort since July, 1960, to get U.N. action on its political and economic battle with the United States and its other hemispheric neighbors.

Cuba has asked the council to submit the OAS action against Premier Fidel Castro's Marxist-Leninist regime to the Hague court for an advisory opinion on its legality, and to set the action aside pending the court's opinion.

Private Liquor Brands Costing

NEW YORK (UPI) — Private label liquor brands that generally sell from 10 per cent to 15 per cent under nationally distributed brands are causing headaches for major distillers.

Although there are no official figures, it is reported these private brands currently account for a quarter of the total volume in New York and are increasing their share of the liquor market.

Editor Says World Government Tied To World Peace

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — It will require world government to save the world, Norman Cousins told more than 800 persons attending the annual dinner of the Northern California chapter of United World Federalists here last night.

National governments no longer can protect their citizens — the very purpose for which they were constituted, said Cousins, editor of the Saturday Review.

There is no security, he declared, in building bigger and bigger defense establishments and stockpiling more and more A-bombs.

The United States, said Cousins, now has enough bombs to wipe Soviet Russia off the earth 18 times over. The Soviets have not quite so many—but plenty to wipe out the U.S.A.

"No doubt two years from now, because of our stepped-up program, we will be able to destroy the Soviet Union 49 times over while they can destroy us only 31 times over," he said. "Does anyone feel secure?"

Cousins declared "the only security on earth is the security of an enforceable peace."

The platform of the United World Federalists calls for international law which the nations will agree to respect — with a police force to enforce it if necessary. Cousins suggested such an international referee can be built on the framework of the United Nations, but the U.N. must be much strengthened to be effective.

Nations insist on law within their own borders, he said, but there is anarchy on a world scale.

An enforceable world peace, he admitted, is extremely difficult — "more difficult than anything, except making an atomic bomb or sending a man into space. Both of these are more difficult. Both of these we have done."

"War is an invention of the human mind. The human mind, if it wishes, can invent peace," he concluded.

Army Dentist Is Named Man Of The Year In Mill Valley

Dr. Belman C. Maddox, a dentist with the Army at Fort Baker, was given the "Man of the Year" award last night by the Mill Valley Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Judges chose Maddox, a captain, from other candidates in Southern Marin mainly for the part he played in helping organize a goodwill medical mission to Costa Rica in January.

At that time Maddox and three other men, all members of the Mill Valley Methodist Church, used their vacations to provide free medical care for Costa Ricans. Dr. Maddox was reported to have pulled 100 teeth in two days at Irocanas, Costa Rica.

They also helped provide funds for a Costa Rica student to complete his education.

In addition, Maddox was credited for his work with the Methodist Church, of which he is a board member and chairman of the Commission on Missions.

BELMAN C. MADDOX
Mill Valley 'Man of Year'

Maddox speaks frequently to teen-agers on dating and teen-age problems.

He was present at the California Alpine Club with his boss, Col. Kingdon Avery, who is in charge of the San Francisco Presidio Dental Clinic. The Distinguished Service Award, a plaque, was presented by Mayor Robert D. Huber.

Key man awards were presented to Dr. Lee Smith and T. J. De Lasaux Jr., both of Mill Valley.

Maddox, born in Georgia, will be 31 this month. He did graduate work in Georgia and served in the Army in Korea in 1958-59. He then came to Fort Baker where he has 1,500 "patients."

He lives with his wife, Virginia, and three children at 347 Richardson Way, in Tamalpais Valley.

William D. Hendricks, assistant to the manager of the Golden Gate Bridge District, spoke on rapid transit and a proposed second bridge and answered questions. Gerald Montizambert was master of ceremonies. Lee Shain, president of the Jaycees, spoke briefly.

Rockefeller Divorce Degree Is Granted

RENO (UPI) — Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller, white-faced and unsmiling, obtained a divorce decree today ending her 31-year marriage to the governor of New York.

A complaint charging mental cruelty was filed at 9 a.m. Mrs. Rockefeller emerged 20 minutes later from the chambers of district Judge Grant Bowen, who granted the divorce.

She was accompanied as she left the judge's chambers by her attorney, her sons Rodman and Laurence and a friend, Mrs. Harry Drackert.

They walked wordlessly through a crowd of nearly 50 photographers, newsreel cameramen and reporters down a flight of steps to a station wagon and drove away.

Attorney Kenneth Dillon of Reno, who represented Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, said the divorce was obtained on grounds of "extreme cruelty entirely mental in nature."

Visitors to the 1962 Seattle World's Fair will consume enough hot dogs to form a chain linking Seattle to San Francisco—a distance of 800 miles.

Marin Library To Open Tamal Branch Tuesday

The Tamal branch of the Marin County library will open in its new location in Tamalpais Valley Tuesday at Shoreline Highway and Poplar Street.

Hours will be from 2 to 6 p.m., Tuesday; 2 to 5 p.m., Thursday, and 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m., Friday, announced Virginia Keating, county librarian.

The county first brought books to Tamalpais Valley in 1948 by Bookmobile. In 1958, largely as result of requests from the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club, the library was located in the club's hall on Maple Street. It will be moved from there over the weekend by club members and other residents. Peter A. Lentz in charge of moving shelving.

The library will be run by Mrs. Betty Jennings, present branch library assistant.

The new space, in the new Harry Johnson Building, is twice as large as the present library. The county will pay $100 a month rent for it.

There are approximately 3,000 books in the present collection, Mrs. Keating said. "With additional space," she added, "we intend to increase the children's collection of books and especially the reference collection."

Novato Summer Recreation May Not Get Director Until July 1

A summer recreation program for Novato will depend on the Park and Recreation Advisory Commission getting it started without the help of a professional director.

The commission was faced with this fact last night when city administrator J. Julien Baget said a director probably could not be obtained until July 1.

Four members of the Novato Unified School District board, Dr. Joseph Sereda absent, met with the commission to discuss use of school facilities for a recreation program. They said they were willing to cooperate, but costs would have to come from the recreation fund.

San Jose School District board members did not attend.

City Atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr., told the commission the city could not spend tax money for Little League and Pony League.

The commission recommended that the city council accept the trading stamp proposal to raise money for a swimming pool. Mrs. Helen Scott of 8 Sylvia Circle, had presented a plan to the commission at its March 1 meeting to raise money by "community development stamps."

Novato Improvement

Improvement of Industrial Way between First and Second streets, Novato, will be discussed by the property owners along the street, at 8 p.m. next Wednesday at the Novato City Hall, according to Charles Joseph, Novato public works director.

LIBERTY BELL BACK IN PLACE

The Liberty Bell was reswung from its supporting yoke in Independence Hall at Philadelphia yesterday after the yoke had been reinforced with a T-shaped steel beam. The bell had been minus its yoke since Jan. 19 when it was removed. The wooden beam was reinforced after fear it would give way. (AP Wirephoto)

New Deputy D.A. Named For County

San Rafael attorney Donald E. Paterson Jr., 38, member of the Smallman, Paterson and Robbins law firm, will become a deputy district attorney next month.

Paterson, who has been practicing law for nine years, will succeed Hadden W. Roth, who will leave the district attorney's office to join the law firm of Bagshaw, Schaal, Martinelli, Weissich and Jordan.

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety today announced Paterson's appointment as new deputy.

Paterson attended Berkeley schools, University of California and Hastings College of Law. He practiced law in San Fernando before moving to San Rafael in 1957. He lives at 12 Allensby Lane, San Rafael, with his wife Betty and two children, Cordy and Gary.

Paterson is past president of Tamalpais Toastmasters Club, member of the San Rafael Optimist Club, vice president of Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum, and member of the San Rafael Library Board.

He was co-chairman of the Nixon-Lodge Campaign in Marin in 1960. He is chairman of the Marin County Bar Assn. Law Day committee.

Marin Catholic High Senior Wins Speech Contest

James Palleschi, of 5 Corte Comoda, Greenbrae, a Marin Catholic High School senior, won the Zone 3 Lions Club speech contest last night at the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

Palleschi, sponsored by the Mill Valley Lions Club, will compete against other zone winners in a regional contest next month, said William H. Schwartz, Zone 3 contest chairman.

Other speakers in the zone contest were Tina Schultz, Redwood High School sophomore, sponsored by the Corte Madera Lions Club, and Richard Woodard, of Tamalpais High School, sponsored by the Sausalito Lions Club. The speech topic was "My Responsibility in a Changing World."

Fourteen major languages and over 800 minor languages and dialects are spoken in India.

Investors In Bolema Club Want To Share In Sale For Seashore

Five investors who started out on a basis of selling pheasants would like to recover their money through Uncle Sam's investments on Point Reyes.

Apparently their hope is based on the potential of the expected national seashore. But they're nailing down their claim early before the rush.

The five East Bay men are suing Douglas G. Hertz, promoter of the Bolema Club

Suit filed in San Leandro-Hayward Municipal Court asks for an order that they share in any profits resulting from sale of the 1,400-acre Bolema Club property to the federal government.

The five claim their investments suffered "dilution" through fast manipulations. They started, they relate, by putting money into two corporations, Chil-Chic, a frozen chicken operation in Castro Valley, and Cornish Game Farms.

These were to grow chickens and game birds in San Lorenzo and sell them to Bay Area grocers. But the birds didn't get off the ground, so the investment, plus another $2,000, was moved into Pheasonettes, Inc.

That was dissolved and went down the drain, But its assets went into the Bolema Club, carved out of the William Tevis Ranch and supposed to lure sportsmen with African white guinea hens, chukar partridges, black mallards, trout and fine horses.

Scenery was and is fine, little impaired by development though from time to time (last time was last month, involving 425-acre Wildlife Acres approved by Marin County planners and supervisors) subdivisions reached the stage of "tentative map."

Now the incipient seashore may provide a lot of taxpayers' money for land purchase. Point Reyes Land and Development Co., identified as latest repository of the investors' investments, conceivably will get some.

Legal Aid Society Names Five

Five were named to the 15-member board of directors of the Legal Aid Society of Marin County at the society's annual meeting yesterday.

Re-elected were incumbents Judge Leonard A. Thomas and Rev. John J. O'Hare, executive director of Catholic Social Service in San Rafael. New members elected were Mrs. Joseph G. Wilson, Dr. Catherine Pike and Richard A. Clark. All were named to three-year terms.

Presiding at the meeting in the courtroom of Superior Judge N. Charles Brusatori was San Rafael attorney Roderick P. Martinelli, president of the society.

Moderating a panel on marriage counseling was San Rafael attorney Ann L. Diamond, member of the board and past president of the society. Panelists were Elizabeth Coyle of the Marin County Welfare Department; Julia Bloomfield, Marin Counseling Service; Celia Walker, Family Service Agency of Marin; and Sister Martine, Catholic Social Service.

The society of about 100 is made up of members of the Marin County Bar Assn. and subscribing members.

Construction Up During February

New authorizations for Marin County construction during February were up 14.2 per cent as compared with the same month last year, according to the Marin Industrial Development Foundation. The total was $4,016,710.

Apartments were a strong feature for the second month, accounting for 134 new dwelling units from a total of 210 or 57.4 per cent. The usual proportion is about one-third.

Larkspur topped all areas with a total value of $1,142,242 due to a permit for 76 apartments on Magnolia Avenue. San Rafael was second with $675,807 and Novato third with $553,365.

Delegation Member

Maeanne Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Jackson of 36 Rafael Drive, San Rafael, will be a member of the St. Mary of the Plains College delegation to the Midwest Model United Nations in St. Louis, Mo., March 29-31.

Felon Indicted For Murdering Fellow Convict

Convict Michael C. Ison, 22, of San Quentin Prison will appear in Marin Superior Court Monday to face a charge of murdering a fellow convict last Dec. 18.

Ison was indicted last night by the Marin County Grand Jury, headed by Foreman Irving Chapman.

Ison, who is serving a six-month to 10-year term for felony assault in San Francisco last year, is now accused of slaying Thomas Devers, 24, whose name figured prominently in the San Quentin dope-smuggling case last month. Devers' mother, Marie Frances Hall, 47, of Hayward, was one of three persons convicted of smuggling narcotics into prison.

Four escapees from San Quentin were also indicted last night by the grand jury.

Three escaped together in a garbage packer truck on Jan. 29 and were later recaptured in scattered parts of the country. They are Leonard Leon Patton, 27; Melvin Lorne Brigham, 29, and Gray Athol Cornell, 41.

Patton is serving time for burglary, rape and lewd conduct in Los Angeles in 1960. Brigham is a Los Angeles robber convicted in 1960. Cornell is a two-time loser, having committed a robbery in Los Angeles in 1947 and another robbery in San Mateo in 1951.

Grand jurors also indicted Harry W. Verrell, 25, for escaping from prison on Washington's birthday. He is a Kern County robber, convicted in 1958. Verrell did not get far. He was caught on a hill between the prison and San Rafael on Feb. 23, the morning after his escape.

Lauterwasser Resigns From Jury Because He Is Running For Office

Russ Lauterwasser, Larkspur contractor, resigned from the Marin County Grand Jury last night because he will run for the office of treasurer-tax collector in June.

Judge Richard M. Sims of Marin Superior Court and the grand jury accepted Lauterwasser's resignation with regrets. Judge Sims announced he would delve into the law to see whether a replacement should be picked for Lauterwasser's post on the 19-member grand jury, and if so, how the successor should be chosen.

"Whereas I have filed as a candidate for the public office," said Lauterwasser, "I believe it to be in the best interest of county government that I not continue as a member of the Grand Jury. . . .

"I regret that both opportunities to serve the county happened at the same time."

The grand jurors adjourned last night's meeting out of respect to County Clerk George S. Jones, who died of a heart attack Wednesday afternoon.

Hub School Science Fair Winner Named

Charles Hodge of Brookside School's seventh grade, won the grand prize at a Science Fair of the school in San Anselmo on his model of a wind tunnel to test airplane wings.

Second prize went to Dorothy Luders for an exhibit showing the effect of sunlight on plants. Third prize was awarded jointly to Barbara Jones and Catherine DelPino of an entry on the action of minerals on plant leaves. A study of cancer cells won honorable mention for Douglas Manuel.

Social Note From Cigar Smoking Set

NEW YORK (UPI) — A new league of social clubs called the Cigar Smokers of America has acquired a chapter called a "Humidor" in New York. Founded earlier this year in Newport, R. I., the league has "Humidors" in Boston and Philadelphia.

The purpose — to give stag dinners.

Petitions Due Monday For Sausalito Recall

Petitions for recall of Sausalito Mayor Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. and Councilman Michael Harris will be filed with the Sausalito city clerk at 11 a.m. Monday, Russell S. Reagan said today.

The Sausalito insurance broker, who filed notice of intention for the recall Jan. 18 charging the councilmen with "mis-use of office," said he and others are still collecting signatures.

Hallinan Again Demands Mellon Be Fired From City Police Job

Belvedere attorney Vincent Hallinan yesterday demanded that Thomas J. Mellon, San Francisco police commissioner who lives in Kentfield, be thrown off the commission.

Hallinan has a taxpayer's suit on file against Mellon on the grounds the commissioner does not live in San Francisco.

The San Francisco city charter requires that city employees live in the city. Hallinan said that the fact Mellon is in a position to judge subordinates who violate the charter — while violating it himself — makes "a travesty of justice."

Mellon lives in Rock Road in Kentfield but uses the address of a San Francisco friend "for voting purposes," Hallinan alleged.

Hallinan filed suit on Jan. 29 demanding Mellon's salary be refunded to the city. The suit also asks that Mellon be required to pay $100,000 in exemplary damages to the city. The part-time job pays $100 a month.

Yesterday Hallinan added the demand that Mellon be fired.

City Atty. Thomas M. O'Conner said he will give a formal opinion on Monday as to what constitutes "legal residence." A hearing is scheduled on Tuesday before Judge Byron Arnold on a demurrer by Mellon's attorney, Neil E. Falconer, that Hallinan has no basis for a suit.

Science Fair Opens 2-Day Stand

The annual Marin County Science Fair opened a two-day stand Friday in College of Marin gymnasium with 126 entries.

The projects of Marin seventh and eighth grades and high school students will be on view from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. today and tomorrow.

Last night's judging by three out-of-county science teachers wound up after midnight with awards being placed on 21 entries. First and second prize winners will automatically be entered in the Bay Area Science Fair on April 7-11 at the California Academy of Sciences at Golden Gate Park in San Francisco.

Awards were given in physical and biological science categories and were divided into elementary, high school, individual and group divisions.

First individual award in physical science went to Barry Jordan, Tamalpais High School junior, for his project, "Production of Artificial Gems."

First high school group award was won by four 17-year-old Marin Catholic High School seniors, Jim Palleschi, John Jones, Tom O'Connel and George Kowski, for their entry, "The Intensity of Sound."

Elementary school individual winners in physical science were:

First—Mitchell Fink, Adeline E. Kent School eighth grader, for "The Comparative Amount of Light Emitted by Pyrotechnic Compositions," second, Mike Milot, Kent School eighth grader, for "Can Portland Cement Be Made From Oyster Shells?"; third, Gary Stevens, Edna McGuire School eighth grader, for "Probability."

Honorable mentions went to Nancy Behr, Edna McGuire, eighth grader, "How You Can Detect Earthquakes," and Dave Denison, Davidson School seventh grader, for "Polarized Light."

Group awards to seventh and eighth grade students went to Bill Ingram, Danny Joaquin and Larry Hardin, Fairfax Central School, for "Hertz Parabolic Reflector"; and David Budde and Michael Lee at Hill Intermediate School for "Solar Distillery."

First award for biological science entries from junior and senior students went to Peter Dorinson, Redwood High School senior, for "The Effects of Uretal Litigation in the Mammalian."

Honorable mention in the same division was awarded to Michael Mellon, Marin Catholic Senior, for "A Major Breakthrough in Traffic Safety."

First prize for freshman and sophomore students in biological science went to John Burke, Redwood High School sophomore, for "The Effects of Ultra Violet Radiation on the Germination of Seeds." No second prize was awarded in the division.

Two honorable mentions in the same category went to Sharon Phelan, Marin Catholic sophomore, for "The Brain"; and to Steve Vasa, San Rafael High School freshman, for "Can Rats Learn New Ways of Doing Things?"

First group award went to Victoria Presson and Mary Lally, Marin Catholic sophomores, for "How the Planeria React to Stimuli."

Honorable mention for a group was given Allan Chambliss and Eugene Ceccotti of Marin Catholic High School, for "Are you What You Eat?"

Elementary school biological science winners were:

First—Catherine McBain, Dominican Convent eighth grader, "What Effect Does Sodium Fluoride Have on Plants and Water Pipes?"; second, Susan Mellerup, A. E. Kent School eighth grader, for "Natural Versus Artificially Colored Foods—Does Color Affect Choice?"; third, Rebecca May, Edna McGuire eighth grader, "Effect of Antibiotics on Flies."

Honorable mentions went to Steve Patrakis, Edna McGuire seventh grader, for "What Is the Effect of Environment and DNA From One Type of Algae on the Growth and Reproduction of Another Type of Algae?"

A group award in biological science was awarded to Wolfram Toes and Edward Edmonson of Lagunitas School for "A Biological Project."

Judges were Louis Alcorta, Galileo High School; William Buskirk, Polytechnic High School, and Albert Heppe, Sonoma High School.

San Jose, Dixie Merger Discussed

Ways of merging the San Jose School District with all or part of the Dixie School District were discussed last night at an informal fact-finding meeting of school officials and residents of the San Jose district.

Four district residents, interest in the possibility of combining the two districts under one administration, were given information about methods of consolidation or the annexation, said Philip W. Hoffmire, 403 Calle De La Mesa, Ignacio.

Attempted consolidation of the San Jose district with the Novato Unified School District has failed at the polls three times. Both San Jose and Dixie districts are in San Rafael High School District.

Chairman of the citizens' group is Harlan S. L. Clare, 440 Corte Norte, Ignacio.

Representatives of the Dixie district, San Rafael High School District, county schools office, county counsel's office and J. E. Harris, state fiscal division of school allocations, attended the meeting in the conference room of the Crocker-Anglo National Bank in San Rafael. San Jose district officials were absent.

The Sheikdom of Yemen was once a part of the ancient kingdom of Sheba.

Vote Split, But Marinwood Board Authorizes Study Of Government

A study to determine the best future government for Marinwood was authorized in a split vote last night by the Marinwood Community Services District board.

The study, to be made jointly with Terra Linda, would include feasibility of incorporation, annexation to San Rafael, or continuation of CSD government.

Howard Council, district board chairman, said the board was "generally opposed to any study of incorporation alone and wants to emphasize a study of the political future."

Directors Sami Haddad and E. Mack Miller voted against the study, calling it premature.

The board set aside $600 for fees of a planning consultant to make the study. Council said directors will set up a meeting with Terra Linda CSD directors to arrange a contract.

Members of the Marinwood Assn. proposed the joint study.

DINING OUT AND INNS

Pirate's Den Opens Tomorrow At Sabella's Luau At Wiltshire

A suggestion of the Spanish Main will be found at Sabella's tomorrow night when the popular highway restaurant opens its new "Pirate's Den" to dancing.

The redecorating and rearranging over the past few weeks in the cocktail quarters has materialized into a buccaneer motif—not lavishly done but in good taste and in keeping with the sea trophies and waterside location.

Emmett (Pat) Kelly's combo will furnish the music.

The Pirate's Den, formerly the Captain's Room, adjoins the lounge but will have no liquor service during dancing. It will be for that and no more, and if you want refreshment between numbers you'll have to return to your table in the lounge. Dancing will be a regular Saturday night event.

We hear, too, that Mrs. Jo Nelson of San Rafael, an expert in party matters, is taking over Sabella's banquet arrangements.

IF BUCCANEERS seem a bit of a twist tomorrow, here's another suggestion:

SHAUN WILTSHIRE who recently returned from a trip to Honolulu is putting on an "Irish Luau" starting at 10 a.m. at the Wiltshire Motel.

'Twill be a rare occasion for the youngsters, with games and donkey rides—and of all things—will feature the good old Irish-Hawaiian custom of roasting a sucklin' pig in the sod throughout the day. The same will be unearthed at 7 p.m. and escorted to the dining room with a "Tiki Torch Parade" for proper consumption.

But there'll be corned beef an' cabbage for the true sons o' Erin.

WE'VE DISCOVERED that Denny Miller (Mr. Clean) won't be able to start serving food at his Tiburon nightery "39 Main" for another month. He plans on utilizing the premises next door which will take some remodeling.

Meanwhile, Jacques Risso is engaged for the piano bar Wednesdays through Saturdays from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m.

PIANO AND SONG STYLIST —Don Regan is new at Rickey's, Ignacio, where he plays every night except Sunday.

MAIN DINING ROOM at Bob's of Marin, Corte Madera, has been closed until May or June except for special parties and banquets.

The coffee shop, however, is still open 24 hours a day Fridays and Saturdays, and to 11 p.m. through the rest of the week. Manager Maury Campbell says it serves the same food and at less cost—$1.95 dinners and a special $1.65 fish dinner Friday nights.

IF YOU HAVEN'T "discovered" Le Chalet, petite new Basque dinery at 405 North San Pedro Road, Santa Venetia, now is a good time before it becomes overcrowded.

The Coscarates, Raymond and Eugenie have redecorated it nicely inside, food is good and inexpensive. Most lunches are $1.25 complete, with a wide variety —omelettes au champignons or au fromage, sirloin steak with mushrooms and half a fried chicken are among the selections.

Dinner at $2.75 features principally chicken with a sauce Basquaise or a boeuf Bourguignon which also has the Basque treatment, and includes hors d'oeuvres, soup, French fries, salad, dessert and coffee. Seafood dinners on Friday. Plenty to eat and you should enjoy it.

Chef Paul Amouroux was born in Paris but lived for years in the Basque country, so he knows the cooking routine.

Open seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

JOHN RICKEY who has acquired any number of objects d'art in his travels, presents four of his choice pictures to the Crippled Children Society at last Tuesday's style show at Rickey's Rancho Rafael. They are to be put up for auction and the proceeds added to the drive fund.

AND APOLOGIES are due Miss Ann Street Fowler whose paintings are being displayed at Drake's Arms, Inverness. Darn these phones anyway — imagine calling her Manstredt Fowler!

The pictures, or some of them, are still there, I'm told. They will be for the rest of the month.

Restaurant Owner Buys Tommy's Joynt Land

San Francisco restaurant owner Tommy Harris and his associates have purchased from Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Pagnucci of Fernhill Avenue in Ross the land where his original Tommy's Joynt is located.

The property at Van Ness Avenue and Geary Street in San Francisco was jointly owned by Paganucci and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forward of Los Angeles.

SHE COOKS THE GERMAN WAY

MUST BE SANE TO RUN FOR GOVERNOR?

SAN DIEGO (AP)—The county counsel ruled out a woman candidate for governor of California yesterday.

Counsel Henry Dietz held that Mrs. Aida Goodell Rust, Escondido housewife, was ineligible because a discharge from Patton State Hospital Jan. 20, 1959, showed she was improved but did not state she was cured of a mental disorder.

Dietz advised the registrar of voters that he would be justified to present a claim for return to Mrs. Rust of her $800 filing fee if she requested it.

She paid the fee in taking out nomination papers for the June 5 Republican primary.

San Rafael Hires Senior Operator For Sanitation

Louis Frank Burnini, for 10 years superintendent of public works of Mill Valley, has been hired as senior operator by the San Rafael Sanitation Department.

Burnini, 47, of 338 Shoreline Highway in Mill Valley, will receive $600 a month during his six-month probationary period. At the end of that time his salary would be open for negotiation, according to Norris Rawles, sanitation district manager.

The new district employee replaces John Barry who recently resigned. Burnini was Mill Valley public works head from 1949 to 1959. Since that time he has been owner and operator of the Corte Madera Bike Shop. He will be in charge of operation of the city sanitation plant in East San Rafael.

WINE CORNER

Here's Another List To Cut Out To Save For Reference

This week's pronouncer and glossary:

Barbera (bar-bair'-a) — From a grape developed in Italy's Piedmont but which is right at home in California. A lusty red —for red meat. Can be chilled just a touch.

Beaujolais (bo-zo-lay') — A region in France considered part of Bergundy by most people but not by its residents. They say their wine is different. The big Beaujolais grape is the Gamay. Its gay, fruity character came through for American producers, too.

Gamay (gah-may) — Generally red but also a Rose. A dry, medium - bodied dinner wine when red; a bit sweeter when Rose.

Madeira (mah-day'-rah) — Deep amber, semi-sweet and Sherry-like. Originally from the Island of Madeira and made popular in the U.S. in the days when sailing ships called there. Not many of the latter in our time and not much of the former is imported anymore.

Liebfraumilch (lebe-frow-milsh)—A German Rhine wine, more often than not on the sweet side. Not necessarily the best the Rhineland has to offer but not the dearest either.

Muscatel (muss - cah - tell)—named for the distinctive, sweet, aromatic grape from which it is made—the Muscat. Gold to amber with medium body. Try it instead of dessert, or for a 4 p.m. refreshment with a crumpet. Best if cold.

Pinot Blanc (pea-no blanh)—From the grape of the same name. White and light. A bit tart. Medium body. Dry. Second only to Chardonnay in the white Burgundy class.

Pinot Noir (pea-no no-ahr)—Run the "no-ahr" together like a slur in music. A red dinner wine made from the Pinot Noir grape. A Burgundy type. Dry, medium - bodied. Soft and smooth. An aristocrat.

Sauvignon Blanc (so-vee-nyonh blanh)—From the grape of the same name. A Sauterne type, straw to light-gold color. Can be dry, medium or sweet.

Sylvaner (sil-vah'-ner) — A Rhine wine type, green-gold, acid, fragrant and refreshing. From the Sylvaner grape (sometimes called Franken Riesling). With fish, it's perfect. Equally so with a cheese dish.

Traminer (trah-meen'-er) — Aromatic, medium-bodied, straw to light-gold. From the Traminer grapes native to the Rhineland. A delightful dinner wine.

Vino Rosso (vee-no ross-so)—A generalized term for a mellow red wine on the sweet and soft side. Fairly heavy-bodied and ruby red. You can make a similar wine yourself by putting a shotglass of Port in a fifth of dry red dinner wine.

Marin Has Not Yet Had Time To Miss George Jones

The late George S. Jones . . .

It is yet too early for the County of Marin, which has known George Jones for 75 years, to realize what it will be like without him.

Gone is one of the strongest, most dependable public servants Marin County has ever known.

This is not to say everyone agreed with or approved of all the things that he did. But it does say that even his critics knew where he stood, what his policies were and could expect that these policies would be carried out.

At one time George Jones was probably the most powerful individual politically in the county. His opponents would object to the way he did things, but they would have to admit that he did his official duties the same for both his friends and his opponents.

Few persons indeed challenged the efficiency of the county clerk's office. It had an outstanding record of operation from the point of view of the public, the courts, the supervisors, and other departments. As in any office operating efficiently, it resisted change. But when change came, this too became an integral part of procedures.

George Jones was more than an office manager. To many Marinites he was faithful friend and companion. He was cheerful, friendly and pleasant informally, although sometimes curt and sharp under press of official business.

He was active in civic life, service clubs and sportsmen's organizations as well as in the business world of real estate.

To the Board of Supervisors he became a human reference file, one to whom they turned for background and precedent, one who could back up his recollection with the facts and statistics when the board needed more than memory could be expected to recall.

George Jones was planning to retire the first of the year. It seems too bad that a man who has worked so long and hard could not enjoy retirement at least for a time.

Yet who could imagine George Jones in retirement? It is incongruous. Work was his life. We imagine that could he have had his choice, he would have chosen to go as he did, quickly and unexpectedly, his latest task still underway but right on schedule.

As we said, Marin has not yet had time to feel the impact of his departure. All of us will. But even this will be minimized because, as usual, everything has been left in order.

We'll miss his being here to see that it remains that way.

THE GOALS OF EDUCATION

A college in Pennsylvania gave this enlightening summary of its aims. They were to "provide the environment" to encourage:

1. Freedom in forming opinions;
2. Courage in making decisions;
3. Competence in pursuing personal and professional goals;
4. Sensitivity in responding to the needs of others.

Most of us would agree that the purpose of education goes far beyond the mere acquisition of so many facts, however useful they may be.

To be truly effective for time and eternity, all of us need a clear insight into our relations with God (to Whom we owe worship); to ourselves (to whom we owe proper spiritual and physical development); and to our fellow man (to whom we owe respect and a love that proves itself in action).

Fulfil these goals and you will be educated in the highest sense, however few or many your degrees.

"I am the way, and the truth, and the life." (John 14:6)

Keep me aware at all times, O Lord, of why I am here on earth, and where I am destined to go.

Here's How It Feels To Be Irish On That Day Of All Grand Days

NEW YORK (AP)—What is it to be Irish?

How can you put the wonder of it into words? If a psychiatrist stretched himself out on his own warm couch after his last customer had gone home, and he dreamed of the man he himself would most like to be—well, he might be perfect, but he'd still be only half an Irishman on St. Patrick's Day.

What is it to be Irish then?

It is to have an angel in your mouth, turning your prose to poetry. It is to have the gift of tongues, to know the language of all living things. Does an Irishman pause and turn an ear to a tree? It is because on this day he wants to hear what one sleepy bud says to another as it opens its pale green hands to the warm sun of spring.

What is it to be Irish?

Oh, on this day it is music. Not just the cornet in the parading high school band, but the deep, deep music of living; the low, sad rhythms of eternity. The Irishman hears the high song of the turning spheres, the dim lullaby of the worm in its cocoon. All the world is in tune, and he is in step with the tune, the tune that only he can hear.

What is it to be Irish?

It is to live the whole history of his race between a dawn and a dawn—the long wrongs, the bird-swift joys, the endless hurt of his ancestors since the morning of time in a forgotten forest, the knock-at-his-heart that is part of his religion.

WHAT IS it to be Irish?

It isn't only the realization that he is descended from kings. It is the realization that he is a king himself, an empire on two feet striding in power, a strolling continent of awe.

What is it to be Irish?

WHY ON St. Patrick's Day, to be Irish is to know more glory, adventure, magic, victory, exultation, gratitude and gladness than any other man can experience in a lifetime.

What is it to be Irish?

It is to walk in complete mystic understanding with God for 24 wonderful hours.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Only 3 Youths In Trouble

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I am writing this letter in regards to the newspaper article that appeared in your paper the night of March 5, telling of the disturbance which occurred at a dance held at the V.F.W. hall in Santa Venetia the Saturday before.

We in the V.F.W. are concerned with the welfare of young people. Many of our members are either fathers or grandfathers so that makes us more than just interested. We had quite a bit of discussion before we allowed the use of the hall for teen-age dances, but we realize that the young people have to have some outlet to enjoy themselves and have good clean fun. We also felt that by allowing them to assume some responsibility for their actions that it teaches them to become better citizens in the future.

In the interest of fair play to the young people, it should be brought out that there have been 12 dances in three months involving 2,400 teenagers. Out of that number only three were involved in trouble.

Now we think that is a very good percentage and speaks well for the behavior of the young people as a whole.

We also feel that the Marin County Sheriff's office should be commended for the caliber of men they have policing these dances. They have done a wonderful job under difficult circumstances.

Credit Is Due Choreographer

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I read, with much interest, your story in March 8 edition regarding the "Carnaval in Rio" produced and directed by the fiery, vivacious, lovable Brazilian, Gigi Sill.

Everyone concerned was given credit with the exception of one of the most important people involved—Arminda Crespo, our choreographer. She is responsible for the majority of the colorful numbers and we think she should be mentioned with fervor.

A great many of the members of the cast of "Gigi Presents" had never danced before, and she took their meager talents and molded them into a series of interesting and lively numbers boasting a definite Brazilian air.

I know I speak for the entire cast when I say we've all enjoyed working in the show and, though we fully realize we can't compete with a Barry Ashton production, we've gained so very much. The spirit of togetherness and comradeship is something none of us will forget.

Arminda — we salute you, love you and admire your many, many talents.

Director, Dance Leagues of Marin.

Women For Peace Are The Realists

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The Women for Peace movement hes been one of the encouraging developments on the national scene during recent months. It has attracted rational, informed women to the cause of peace, who have communicated their concern to our policy-makers in the hope of tempering the attitude of some of our warminded officials.

Women for Peace, and others promoting the cause of peace, have counteracted the savings of some citizens who still believe the terrible weapons in our arsenal could bring us victory. These push-button heroes are quite willing to risk ending life on earth through thermonuclear war, rather than face the great challenges of peaceful competition.

A criticism made of the Women for Peace is their lack of realism—a charge truer of the critics themselves. Realism has been faced fully by those working toward peace, and that is why they know that war is untenable. They know that the arms race can end only in disaster, either by accident or design. And that constant nuclear weapons testing by any nation increases sickness, not safety.

Peace today is synonymous with reason and sanity. It is to those people who are doing something constructive about preserving the peace that we will owe our survival as a nation.

U.S. Should Buy U.N. Bonds

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

It is still too early to judge how successful the United Nations will be in the Bengian Congo. But what is of great significance is that in both Korea and in The Congo a precedent has been established whereby many nations acting together created a military force charged with keeping the peace.

In this imperfect world, brush fire wars are inevitable, but now when such tinder might ultimately ignite a nuclear holocaust, it is even more important that the United Nations be strengthened in its vital role as peace maker.

It is precisely for this reason that we should urge our government officials to support the move to purchase United Nations bonds. Unless the United Nations receives the financial support it so desperately needs, we will be guaranteed a return to the world of naked power politics with all its great dangers.

The UN has shown through UNICEF and UNESCO that it is capable of great achievement. I sincerely believe that our greatest hope for a secure world lies in strengthening the United Nations.

Island With Roads, But No Cars; What A Dime Can Do In Reno

An island for a park, it sounds like a great idea.

Reading through the newspaper this week I was elated to see a movement by the state Division of Beaches and Parks to attempt the acquisition of Angel Island from the federal government.

The state foresees a park on this island, all 640 acres of it. And with cars prohibited. Man, what a way to get away from all the rush and clatter of the mechanized city activities.

I keep thinking to myself: What would roads look like without stop signs and street signals? I am anxious to find out.

HERE'S A STORY that goes to show you what a dime can do in Reno:

Carroll C. Cunningham and wife, Mae, of Corte Madera, recently took a little trip to the mecca of the one-armed bandits.

Before their departure, a friend, Suzie Mason, slipped Cunningham a dime and told him to drop it in a slot machine for her.

When the Cunninghams got to Reno, Carroll deposited the dime and out rolled five more dimes. So he stuck these in the little machine too. And then out popped a $16 jackpot.

Now Suzie is $15.90 richer. And she sure has honest friends.

I UNDERSTAND Supervisor William D. Fusselman was somewhat upset when he heard that a member of the county planning staff was going to talk about the Army Engineers plan for Corte Madera Creek.

It was going to be at the meeting of the Marin Council of Park and Recreation Commissions. Fusselman was soothed when he found that the discussion was going to take up only park and recreational use of the creek area.

I GUESS YOU can't give a good fireman too much smoke.

Guido Mariani, assistant fire chief for the Kentfield Fire Department, was living proof of this during the fire in Kentfield Sunday night.

Guido came from the house, smoke still belching from the smouldering roof. He cleared his throat and asked a nearby fireman: "Do you have a cigarette?"

He got one, smoked it, and went back inside the smoking building.

FOR ALL YOU backers of a co-op market in Corte Madera: Don't give up hope.

As you may have read in the I-J, William H. Morrison, one of the owners of the property on which Consumers Co-operative of Berkeley, Inc., had hoped to build a supermarket, has asked for a zoning change.

The co-op people were refused the market because the type of commercial zoning now there does not include markets. If Morrison gets approval of his request to rezone from service commercial to regional shopping commercial, it will be completely legal for a co-op supermarket.

HAVE YOU EVER gotten the feeling that a few Volkswagen drivers are frustrated sports car drivers who can't afford the real thing?

Sometimes I see some of them darting in and out of city traffic as if in a road race. Oh, well, all is forgiven when these little cars start up a hill.

Vinson Trying To Direct President To Build $10 Billion Worth of B-70s

WASHINGTON — Into the long-standing controversy over the B-70 (now to be known as the RS-70) Carl Vinson has injected a new issue. It is whether Congress has the power under the Constitution to overrule the executive in determining what particular weapons the armed forces shall have.

In the past 12 years on about a dozen occasions, Congress has voted money for specific purposes which the Presidents — Truman, Eisenhower and Kennedy—have refused to spend.

The controversy goes back at least to 1949 when President Truman impounded $615,000,000 for the purchase of airplanes. During the Eisenhower administration there were more than 10 cases where the President refused to spend some specific appropriation made by Congress.

NOW PRESIDENT Kennedy is opposing the spending of some $10 billion on the RS-70 which, he says, will be obsolete before it can be ready to fly many years hence.

Vinson, who is the dean of the House and the greatly respected chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, has now lost patience, and has gotten his committee to "direct" the President to spend the appropriation to produce the RS-70. He has therefore posed the constitutional question — which involves the fundamental nature of our system of government—as to whether the Congress has the power not only to advise and consent, to investigate and propose, but also the power to command the executive.

IF IT HAS this power, then ours is not a government of separated powers but a congressional government in which the sovereign power is concentrated in the legislative branch.

In fact, it is quite clear that Congress does not have the power to direct the executive. The truth is that if President Kennedy, like President Eisenhower and President Truman before him, refuses to spend an appropriation, Vinson and the Congress have no power to compel him.

Vinson wants to know if his committee is restricted "to the passive role of supine acquiescence in programs handed to it by the Department of Defense."

THE ANSWER is that of course it need not be supine even though it cannot use the power to direct. Between supine acquiescence and sovereign direction there is the vast and intricate field of advice and consent. In practice this is an enormous power in that neither the military nor the civilians have any interest in quarreling with Congress and, as everyone knows, they lean over backwards in their dealings with Congress.

What the executive cannot concede to Congress is that it has the power to "direct." For that would be, to use the language of the Founding Fathers, to yield to usurpation.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A positive genius in London has come up with the bright idea: separate public telephones for men and women! Statistics prove, he claims, that a man's average call consumes two minutes; a woman's, 15. "Let the women keep each other waiting," he advises. "Men's business efficiency will go up 10 per cent overnight."

Mr. Gruber led his dinner guests into the library, where a new painting of his wife had just been hung. "What an extraordinary lifelike portrait of your missis," enthused one guest. "Isn't it?" agreed Gruber. "I jump three feet every time I see it."

The late George S. Kaufman once had an extraordinary run of luck in a big poker game — and was smart enough to quit before his luck changed. "Not another hand, gentlemen," he announced firmly, as he cashed in his chips. "I intend to fold my tens and silently steal away."

Yanks Returning Viet Fire

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is finding it harder to portray its military men in South Viet Nam as purely sideline coaches in the war against Communist guerrillas.

A reporter raised the point at a news conference yesterday when he told Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara "there is some confusion as to the precise U.S. military role in South Viet Nam."

McNamara sought to make it very clear that the United States is in South Viet Nam at that government's request, to supply training and equipment —not to fight.

"The Americans are under instructions not to fire unless fired upon," he said, "and this is the basic rule of engagement as it relates to our forces in South Viet Nam."

The Pentagon chief acknowledged some sporadic fire has been aimed at U.S. personnel "and in a few minor instances they have had to return that fire in self protection."

Further questioning brought out that the fire was returned by Americans from aircraft as well as on the ground.

For some time, American specialists in guerrilla warfare have accompanied Vietnamese army units into the jungles and rice paddies where the Communist Viet Cong lurk.

On occasion, they have found themselves in the midst of shooting while aiding the Vietnamese in on-the-job training.

Launderette Robbed Of $12 In Change

H. C. Boyer, manager of the Corte Madera Lauderette at 22 Tamalpais Avenue, Corte Madera, has reported to police someone had taken $12 worth of nickles, dimes and quarters from one of the coin machines.

Police said it appeared a thin wire was used to extract the coins from the machine.

A. F. Fighting For Fast, New Plane

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Air Force worked at fever pitch to prepare a new brief for the 2,000-mile-an-hour RS-70 airplane today, hoping to batter down some of Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara's stout resistance.

McNamara struck with sledgehammer blows yesterday at demands of powerful congressmen that development of the RS-70, formerly called the B-70, be expanded.

McNamara favors a go-slow approach on the radical flying machine.

Chairman Carl Vinson (D-Ga., and the House armed services committee support Air Force proposals. They will ask the House Wednesday to approve a bill for the plane.

SHORTEST ON RECORD?

Talking Back To Judge Nets Jail Term: All Of 30 Minutes

Jerold Andreas Bredahl, 29, of Fairfax has the distinction of drawing a 30-minute jail sentence, believe to be the shortest term handed down in Marin County court history.

Bredahl appeared Monday before Judge Leonard A. Thomas in Municipal Court on a charge of battery against his wife, Diane, on Lincoln's Birthday. Mrs. Bredahl told the judge they had ironed out their differences, and she did not want to press charges.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Charles L. Convis recommended the case be continued for three months, and if no further trouble developed, the charge could be dropped.

But trouble apparently brewed immediately. Judge Thomas had agreed to the recommendation and was warning Bredahl to keep out of trouble when the defendant talked back to the judge.

After a few more interruptions, the judge found Bredahl in contempt of court and ordered a half-hour jail sentence.

Actually his sentence was "commuted" by five minutes. The jail log shows Bredahl booked at 9:40 a.m. and released at 10:05 a.m.

The Bredahls live at Park and Bolinas avenues in Fairfax.

Floyd Signs With Liston

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson and challenger Sonny Liston signed for a title fight today that may be the biggest money-maker of them all.

Both Patterson and the controversial challenger from Philadelphia were present for the signing ceremony at a midtown hotel.

The site and date of the fight have not been disclosed, but it is expected to be held in a New York ball park in late June or early July.

An authoritative source said it was understood that June 18 had been established as the date and Yankee Stadium the site.

The fight is expected to gross more than $3 million at the gate and from ancillary rights. Some estimates have ranged as high as $10 million.

RETURN CLAUSE

Patterson will get about 55 per cent of it. Liston will receive 12½ per cent. The contract also calls for a return bout clause, approved by Patterson, should Liston win.

The heavy-handed Philadelphian is ranked No. 1 challenger by both the National Boxing Association and Ring Magazine.

TERRA LINDA YOUTH WINS SCHOLARSHIP

David Dukes, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Dukes, 800 Hacienda Way, Terra Linda, has been awarded a scholarship by the Marin Boys Club Inc., it was announced by Robert Troppmann, chairman of the scholarship committee.

The winner receives $100 toward his college education. If he should attend the College of Marin and then, upon graduation, transfer to a four-year college, he will receive an additional $100. Dukes, described by Coach Dave Bowman as a standout performer on the Terra Linda Trojans, in the Pop Warner football conference, was nominated along with his teammate Everett Fritz. Other players selected were Harry Brink and Fred Hilton of the Mill Valley Indians, Perry Vlahos and Robert McLennan of San Rafael Rangers, Tommy Sather and Bill Niccolls of Redwood Junior Giants and William Ingram and Stuart Clemons of San Anselmo Hornets.

Tacoma Giants Get Full 1st Workout

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. (UPI)—Sixteen players reported to manager Red Davis of the defending PCL champion Tacoma Giants yesterday for the first workout of the spring.

Best known to Tacoma fans were veteran outfielder Dusty Rhodes, first base candidate Charlie Dees and pitcher Don Choate.

It was a perfect day, so Davis immediately put his charges through a full workout.

Most of the balance of the 32-man squad was due in today, although the usual stragglers will be a few days late. These include catcher Frank Reveira, who agreed to terms by phone yesterday.

Meadow Club Results

Mrs. Burnham Enerson of San Francisco carded a 90 yesterday to win low gross honors in the Meadow Club women's guest day 18-hole golf tournament.

Net winners in handicap scoring:

Class A—Mrs. John McGee, 95-18—77; Mrs. H. C. Billings, 94-16—78; Mrs. E. S. Vest, 95-16—78; Mrs. Harry Hensler, 91-11—80; Mrs. John Weitzel, 95-15—80.

Class B—Mrs. Raymond Luce, 92-20—72; Mrs. H. C. Transue, 95-19—76; Mrs. J. B. Evans, Indian Valley, 97-19—78.

Abe Acquistapace Seeks Opponent For Flashy Molina

SAN JOSE (UPI) — Promoter Abe Acquistapace today was looking for another opponent for the flashy San Jose lightweight Luis Molina.

Molina had been scheduled to meet veteran Paoli Rosi April 14 in a televised bout here, but Acquistapace said yesterday that Rosi had backed out.

"I got the bad news from matchmaker Teddy Brenner of the Garden," Acquistapace reported. "He said Rosi absolutely refused to go through with the fight after he had confirmed terms a week ago."

But Acquistapace promised that Molina would still fight in a televised battle April 14. Possible opponents include Tommy Tibbs, Jackie Donnelley and Baby Vasaquez, said the San Jose promoter.

AND A CAKE, TOO — Bruce MacPhail, All-Marin County Athletic League forward for the San Rafael Bulldogs, accepts a cake for his varsity teammates at a pep rally yesterday before the team went to the Tournament of Champions in Berkeley as MCAL champs. Bulldogs Bow In Tourney

San Rafael Bulldogs, Marin County Athletic League basketball champs, probably felt they were playing an elementary school late today as they went against the Pittsburgh High Pirates in a final round in the Tournament of Champions at Berkeley.

Pitt should have seemed like a grade school outfit in contrast to TOC defending champion McClymonds High of Oakland. The outmanned Bulldogs were clobbered by McClymonds 63-44 yesterday in the opening round of the prep basketball festival.

Bulldog coach Mike Diaz was reported satisfied with his team's performance, however. "We never gave up," he said. "We always kept fighting, and played one of the best games of the year. We were outmanned."

The Warriors, led yesterday by 6-5 forward Joe Ellis, managed a seven-point lead in the first period, then initiated a three-quarter court press against San Rafael in the second period, stole the ball 17 times from the Bulldogs and stacked up 25 points on layups in that period alone. The halftime score was 44-20.

BULLDOGS RALLY

The Warriors' coach jerked the first team at the half, the Bulldogs took advantage of the move and tallied 13 straight counts in the third period. With two and one-half minutes to go the first string Warriors were thrown back into the fray as the scoreboard showed the count 53-42 for McClymonds. The first team let the Bulldogs have only two more points.

Coach Diaz praised Bruce MacPhail for a "terrific game." The All-MCAL forward was team high point man with 14 points. Rich Robertson was also lauded by Diaz for a "real good job." Robertson scored nine points and worked hard on the backboards. MacPhail picked up his points on five field goals and four charities and Robertson, All-MCAL center, on four field goals and a free throw.

OTHER SCORERS

Other scorers for the Bulldogs were Jack Sovereign and Jack Haney, with seven points apiece. Rod Monti hit for four points.

San Rafael hit 51.6 per cent of its field goals to McClymonds' 41 per cent, but the Bulldogs were unable to get the ball up enough. They took 31 attempts.

Ellis was the game's high man with 24 points. It was the tournament favorites' 40th straight victory and their 108th win in 109 games.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

PHILADELPHIA—Dick Turner, 147, Philadelphia, outpointed Gaylord Barnes, 155, Valley Stream, N.Y., 8.

SAN DIEGO — Ernie Cuadras, 138, San Diego, outpointed Garfield Sugar Gray, 136, Long Beach, 10.

Marinite Wins Ring Title

Frank Gallardo, MarVel Athletic Club of San Rafael's weightlifting scrapper, today is the novice heavyweight Golden Gloves champion of Northern California.

The 258 pounder grabbed the title last night at San Francisco in an exciting decision over San Francisco longshoreman Harry Simon.

Gallardo brought the crowd to its feet as he blasted Simon halfway through the ropes in the first round.

The 255-pound, tricky, former cage star came into the ring as a crowd favorite, until heavyset Gallardo almost knocked him out of it in that first round with a long left to the chin.

Gallardo, the aggressor all the way, clinched all three rounds of the fight for a unanimous decision. Both athletes were credited by observers to have turned in the most exciting fight of the evening.

Simon had a definitely longer reach on Gallardo and moved quickly. Gallardo worked to get in at Simon and stumbled several times in the attempt. The San Rafael boxer got on target when he forced Simon into the ropes in that opening round.

Both fighters fought savagely; Gallardo came out unhurt.

Lopez Of Mexico To Fight Read

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Jose Lopez of Mexico City will meet Patty Read of Providence, R.I. in a 10-round lightweight fight at San Francisco Civic Auditorium Ma. 31, announced promoter Benny Ford.

Read is ranked ninth among junior lightweights by the National Boxing Assn.

Sloppy Fielding

BERKELEY (UPI)—California's fielding was sloppy, but the Bears still managed to push over two runs in the ninth inning yesterday to defeat San Jose State, 5-4.

347,000 owners prove...

It's value that puts Valiant on the best-seller list!

Make book on it.

What follows is fact—not fiction—and no names have been changed to protect anybody.

Chapter I starts with style. It asks who is the only compact ever to receive the Society of Illustrators' award for design excellence. Answer: The Valiant Signet 200—America's lowest-priced hardtop with bucket seats—that's who!

Chapter II talks performance. Valiant can, and has, run circles around every competitively priced compact, including Falcon, Corvair and Lark.

All of which leads many to suspect they know the plot—Valiant is priced with the so-called "super-compacts." Not so, reveals the surprise ending in Chapter III. Valiant is priced competitively with Falcon, Corvair, Rambler and Lark.

Drive one. Could be you'll want to join those 347,000 folks for whom Valiant's a kind of love story that is continued every month. The title of our story: NOBODY BEATS VALIANT FOR VALUE!

Marichal In Debut For Giants Today

MESA, Ariz. (AP) — Pitcher Juan Marichal was to make his spring debut today as San Francisco's Giants battled the Chicago Cubs here in an exhibition game.

Marichal, who just recovered from a severe cold, was scheduled to work three innings. Ex-American League veteran Billy Pierce and rookie Ron Herbel were expected to split mound chores the rest of the way.

Manager Alvin Dark hinted that Marichal is a strong candidate for the April 10 opening day assignment in San Francisco against the Milwaukee Braves.

The Giants, in a wild 3-hour, 37-minute game yesterday, blew a six-run lead and lost to the Boston Red Sox 7-6 in 11 innings. The Sox came up with six big runs on two pinch-hit homers in the ninth frame to send the game into extra innings.

The loss squared the club's Cactus League record at 3-3.

Billy O'Dell worked the opening five innings without allowing a run and rookie Gaylord Perry kept Boston scoreless until the ninth.

Boston scored three runs on Lou Clinton's double, Pumpsie Green's single and rookie Larry Weick's pinch-hit homer to left field. Rookie southpaw Dan Rivas replaced Perry with the tying run at the plate. Pete Runnels had walked and Eddie Bressoud had singled.

Rivas served a fat one to rookie catcher Bob Tillman, who greeted it with the second three-run pinch homer of the inning.

With the score knotted at six-all, Bressoud walked in the 11th, went to third on Russ Nixon's single and scored the winning run off a wild pitch from Dick Holden, who had come in for rookie Paul Colacecchi.

Colacecchi, who started the 11th, got tagged with the loss. Veteran southpaw Chet Nichols got the win.

The Giants outhit their American League foes 13-9, scoring one run in each of the first, second and seventh innings and three runs in the third frame.

Chuck Hiller's walk and singles by Matty Alou, Willie McCovey and Dick Phillips accounted for the three-run third inning.

Willie Mays and Orlando Cepeda, San Francisco's two big guns, didn't play.

Whitey Lockman Already Having Traffic Jams At 3rd Bag Turn

HANLEY

PHOENIX — Carroll (Whitey) Lockman already has encountered a few traffic jams at third base where he is the Giants' new traffic cop, succeeding Salty Parker who made a winter switch to Cleveland.

For three years Parker did a commendable, if unostentatious job, directing traffic turning the hot corner. Parker even knew how to handle Willie Mays in full stride coming into third. He just threw open all the lights and gave Mays his head—that swiveling head that can look backwards while the $90,000 center fielder is running forwards at a full gallop.

Parker's quiet and competent operation made the job of coaching third base appear easy. He was not involved in any hassels such as Herman Franks found himself in 1958 when Franks was almost driven off his rocker by the reckless rookie running of Orlando Cepeda and other freshman on that first Giant team to play beside the Golden Gate.

Lockman remained silently non-committal when Jose Pagan was trapped in a rundown between third and home, and Chuck Hiller was caught between second and third, in exhibition games earlier in the week. Pagan subsequently admitted he went to sleep and it was his own fault. Hiller also allowed he took too big a turn around second before looking for Lockman's stop or go signal.

"THESE EXHIBITION games are the place you want things like that to happen, if they are going to happen at all," said Alvin Dark.

Dark, of course, has complete confidence in Lockman who has been in the major leagues all his baseball life, from the age of 17 when he first joined the Giants at the Polo Grounds.

Lockman's friendship with Dark began in the years they both played for the club in New York, Lockman as an outfielder and then first baseman, Dark as a shortstop and the club's captain.

Lockman's first year with the Giants was 1945. His last was 1958. Then, when Dark was appointed manager of the team a year ago one of his first acts was to select Lockman as his first base coach, a job that had been Wes Westrum's and once again is.

SOME COACHES love to reminisce about their playing days, recalling the favorable highlights. Lockman can be prodded into admitting he still remembers his double that knocked Don Newcombe out of the box in the 1951 playoff game and brought in Ralph Branca off whom Bobby Thomson belted his pennant winning homer.

A visiting writer from the east recently recalled that double, apparently believing it would be an opening wedge for an interview with Lockman to whom he remarked: "I'll bet you often think about that."

Lockman, politely but firmly, replied: "As a matter of fact I don't. I try not to live in the past and seldom think about the '51 and '54 Giant pennant teams."

Referees Charged In Cage Fix

DALLAS (UPI) — One Southwest Conference basketball official bet $5,000 on a team involved in a game he was refereeing and another was paid a $2,500 fee to control point spreads, State Rep. Tom James of Dallas charged last night.

James, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for attorney general and former vice chairman of the Texas House of Representatives General Investigating Committee, said he had definite information that "two or three, probably three, Southwest Conference basketball officials are probably guilty of receiving bribes."

James said his information "came to me the same way I got so much information about gambling and vice and corruption across the state. The information came to me from many sources. People call me with information they think I might want."

Marin Grid Clinic

Some 400 high school football coaches from throughout the state will converge on Marin County tomorrow to participate in the eighth annual Redwood Football Clinic at Redwood High School, Chairman Bob Troppmann estimated today.

"We've had tremendous response," Troppmann said, "and it looks like the best turnout we've ever had. I expect around 400."

Keynote speaker of the day will be Casey Conrad, state director of health, physical education and recreation. Conrad, special advisor to President Kennedy on youth fitness, will speak on that subject and its implications for athletics, Troppmann stated. His talk is scheduled for 9 a.m., an hour after the clinic opens.

Coaches scheduled to speak and their subjects include Frank Serrao of Redlands High, offensive trends in southern California; Rock McClellan, Chico High, multiple offense; Jim Marberry, Encinal High, punt returns; Joe Marvin, Sequoia High, kicking game; Jess Freitas, Serra High, organization; Don Miller, Grant High, linebacking, simple fundamentals and drill; Dan Albert Monterey, offense.

Opening remarks will be made by Chester Carlisle, superintendent of the Tamalpais High School District; Donald Kreps, principal of Redwood; Bob Muenter, of Piedmont High, football chairman of the California Coaches Assn.; and Troppmann.

Troppmann's committee includes Milt Axt, Tony Bailey, Eldon Bennett, Don Boucher, Paul Bosque, Jim Buckley, Tony Compagno, Mike Convis, Paul Daly, Al Endriss, Lyle Fisher, Dick Hart, Bob Maher, Bob Muenter, Bill Nelson, John Pagliero and Cal Riemcke.

Less Chit-Chat Between Skippers; Plenty Of Salmon Being Taken

STEVENS

Since the F.C.C. clamped down on the excess chit chat between certain sportfishing, salmon boat skippers (a couple had their licenses revoked) there has been less confab than usual. That makes it a bit more difficult to hear the news over my Halicrafter. Combining that condition with the southeast wind which, for some reason, causes a great deal of static over the radio, garbled up my reports on salmon trolling this week, but I did manage to gather that salmon are still being caught in fairly copious quantities.

On Wednesday the boats from the Berkeley Harbor did a bang-up job off Duxbury Reef. From Lee Anderson's shop in Oakland came the following score: Sea Horse, 20 salmon to 17 pounds . . . Sea Bee, 21 to 23 pounds . . . Lucky Day, 13 to 15 pounds . . . Wilma H, 8 to 21 pounds and the Tin-C had 17 to 20 pounds.

Sid McMullen of Caruso's place at Sausalito reported all boats out had good catches but fairly short loads. Top boat wast he Jennie C with 24 salmon to 14 pounds and the My Three took limits for the five rods.

JOE NERVIANI of Joe's launching at Santa Venetia called me to report a good Tuesday with 25 bass from 5 to 18 pounds coming in from seven boats. Among those who made the grade were: Ray Marvin, a pair of stripers to six pounds; "Tiny" Pinnow had his limit to six pounds; Ken Wallman, two to seven pounds and Marvin Miller brought in a limit to six pounds. Most of the fish were taken on two-ounce sliding sinkers on the shell banks.

Following Joe's call, Frank Joseph, of Joseph's Resort at Rodeo called to tell me of the two nice bass that were taken by Jim Bagett. Both stripers weighed between 16 and 18 pounds and were taken on bullheads inside Buoy 10 on the flats. Baggett admitted losing three other bass as large or larger. Lots of flounders rewarded all who fished for them out of Joseph's. The same is true of the boats out of China Camp and Joe's Launching.

FROM NADINE LESSLEY of Dowrelio's Crockett harbor came word of Johnny Sivera pinch hitting for the twice-a-day boat on Tuesday. In the a.m. trip, Johnny had only three anglers aboard and only four in the p.m., but Johnny netted just one less than legal limits for all passengers on both trips. I'd call that good fishing. The Happy Days anchored between buoys 11 and 9.

From the Stagnaros at Santa Cruz comes word of two salmon per rod on Saturday and 28 limits for 28 trollers by 1 p.m. on Sunday. Not too hefty, but plentiful, it seems. Rockfishing was slow on Saturday and very fast and fancy on Sunday with beaucoup limits for most who went out.

ABALONE SEASON opened today. There will be a minus tide tomorrow, not too good an abalone tide, but it is workable for a short time in the afternoon.

JOE CARROLL of San Rafael phoned from the Marina Wednesday to report that he had just come in from an hour-and-a-half's fishing trip between the Sisters and the Pump House. Had his legal limit of three nice stripers to about 10 pounds. Told me another angler limited out at about the same time and a third boat in the area was hauling in fish. Good news, eh, what?

GRID TROPHY BECOMES 'LEGAL'

Donald Kreps, left, principal of Redwood High School, presents trophy to coaches Al Endriss, center, and Bob Troppmann for their teams' undefeated football record in 1959. The trophy, presented by the San Francisco Examiner, was more than two years late in arriving in Redwood's showcase because a Marin County Athletic League rule prohibited outside awards. However, the league's Board of Managers rescinded the rule last week and the trophy become "legal." Novato High School will receive a similar award for the 1961 season tomorrow at a coaches' clinic at Redwood.

Reds Counting 'On Big 7'

By LEO H. PETERSEN

TAMPA, Fla., (UPI)— They're discounting the Cincinnati Reds again; everyone, that is, except Manager Fred Hutchinson and his players.

It was the same story last spring. No one thought the Reds would win except Hutchinson and his players. Hutchinson warned then that his club could go all the way if his pitching came through. It did and the Reds won the pennant, then lost the World Series to the New York Yankees.

Their sad showing in the series led most baseball people to believe their pennant triumph was a fluke.

"Let them keep on thinking that," says Hutchinson. "We'll show them it wasn't a fluke."

His players vow the same thing.

And any club which has the hard core of five outstanding pitchers and two brilliant outfielders as the Reds have cannot be overlooked. Those seven proved last year that they could make up for other shortages. They could be all the Reds need again.

Cincinnati's "big seven" is made up of starting pitchers Bob Purkey, Joey Jay and Jim O'Toole, relief pitchers Jim Brosnan and Bill Henry and outfielders Frank Robinson in left and Vada Pinson in center.

"It's a pretty good group to build around," says Hutchinson and there are few who will dispute that.

The supporting cast drops in class, but it helped to get the job done in 1961 and most of them are back again.

There is Gordy Coleman at first, Don Blasingame at second, Eddie Kasko at short, Gene Freese at third, Wally Post and pinch-hitter deluxe Jerry Lynch for the third spot in the outfield; Johnny Edwards and Darrell Johnson behind the plate and holdovers Ken Hunt and Jim Maloney to back up the pitching.

There is also Leo Cardenas, who can play second, short or third.

Hutchinson believes the Reds picked up strength when they acquired catcher Jesse Gonder from the Yankees and pitchers Dave Sisler, Johnny Klippstein, Dave Hillman and Moe Drabowsky from other major league clubs.

They have some good looking rookies in Cliff Cook, who will fill the third base spot until Freese recovers from his broken ankle; outfielder Joe Gaines; pitchers Sammy Ellis and Tom

College Cagers Will Start Countdown

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The final countdown to determine the 1962 national collegiate basketball champion starts tonight.

Doubleheaders at four regional sites in the NCAA tourney will pare the field to eight teams and Saturday night's regional finals will cut the field to four for the national semi-finals and final at Louisville, Ky. next week.

The lineup.

East Regional at College Park, Md.:

Wake Forest (19-8) vs St. Josephs, Pa. (18-8).

Villanova (20-6) vs NYU (19-4)

Mideast at Iowa City, Iowa

Kentucky (22-2) vs Butler (21-5)

Ohio State (23-1) vs Western Kentucky (17-8)

Midwest regionals at Manhattan, Kan.

Colorado (18-6) vs Texas Tech (19-6)

Cincinnati (25-2) vs Creighton (20-4)

West Regional at Provo, Utah

Oregon State (23-4) vs Pepperdine (19-6)

UCLA (16-9) vs Utah State (22-5).

The main interest will be on the games at Iowa City and Manhattan with the appearance of defending champion, Cincinnati in the national final at Louisville on March 24. Cincinnati stunned the Buckeyes with an overtime victory in last year's championship final.

The Buckeyes, with player-of-the-year Jerry Lucas, playing in his last NCAA tourney, and the Bearcats are favored over Western Kentucky and Creighton, respectively.

In the other games Kentucky, with soph sensation Cotton Nash, is favored over Butler, Colorado over Texas Tech, Oregon State over Pepperdine, UCLA over Utah State, St. Joseph's over Wake Forest and Villanova over NYU.

Three other post-season tournaments are in full swing. The National Invitational opened last night at New York's Madison Square Garden with Temple ousting Providence, the defending champion, 80-78 in overtime, and Dayton whipping Wichitia 79-71.

In the NCAA small college tourney at Evansville, Ind. Wittenberg, the defending champion, was eliminated in the quarter-finals by Mt. St. Mary's 43-39.

Westminster (Pa.) and Prairie View (Tex.), the one, two seeded teams won in the NAIA tourney at Kansas City in the quarter-finals. Westminster defeated Orang (Calif.) State 63-55.

Assemblymen Keeping New Radio, Video Studio All To Themselves

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Assemblymen like their new radio-television studio so much they won't let senators use it.

Members of the lower house made their position clear today after inspecting the well-equipped facility on the second floor of the Capitol annex.

A few months ago, they set aside $10,000 from their contingency fund for the studio. Now, they have a place to be interviewed by radio-TV newsmen or tape a three-minute statement for the station back home.

Asked if senators will have equal time in the studio, Assemblyman Jack Schrade (R-El Cajon) said no.

"They didn't have equal money, either," said Schrade, who helped win Assembly Rules Committee approval for the project.

"Senators will be refused until they put up the money."

It's expected the Senate may show an interest once it becomes aware of the advantages of a nearby, well-equipped studio.

The Assembly's facility, for example, has a tape recording device that is hooked up with a telephone.

After a legislator tapes a statement, his local radio station merely has to dial a special number and the recording is played back.

There is lighting, furniture and a handsome backdrop for television.

And, there's an adjoining room with a sink and a mirror for legislators who feel they need makeup to look their best.

"This is going to be a real help in my campaign," said Assemblyman Frank Belotti (R-Eureka).

"I don't think there's any question that some of the fellows will be using it in their campaign," Schrade said.

But the legislator said the studio was built primarily to improve radio and television coverage of the Capitol.

"I think it gives the legislator a chance to put in his own words why he voted yes or no on some issue rather than having some reporter give his reasons for him," he said.

Mill Valley Council Secretary Quitting

City council meeting hours are just too long after a full day's work at the office for Mrs. Winifred Nadler, Mill Valley City Council's recording secretary.

She is resigning effective tomorrow for that reason, she said today.

Mrs. Nadler, who has been with the city four years, is also secretary to City Manager A. E. Almcrants. She lives at 928 West California Avenue, Mill Valley.

REP. MILLER SAYS:

Health Insurance For Aged Far From Dead

By REP. CLEM MILLER

WASHINGTON—Health insurance for the elderly financed through the Social Security system is far from dead.

What was once considered impenetrable opposition from many in Congress is beginning to crumble. There is an excellent chance that President John F. Kennedy's proposal will come to a vote in the House this year.

The health insurance proposal would not cover doctor bills. It would not interfere in any way with freedom of choice of doctor, nurse of hospital.

Here is what the bill would cover:

1. Inpatient hospital expenses for up to 90 days, as follows: costs in excess of $10 per day for the first nine days (with a minimum payment by each person of $20), and full costs of the remaining 81 days.

2. The cost of up to 180 days of nursing home care immediately after discharge from a hospital. By providing nursing home care for twice as long as hospital care, the patient is encouraged to use the less expensive facilities when these will satisfy his requirements.

3. The cost of hospital outpatient-clinic diagnostic services in excess of $20. These benefits will reduce the need for hospital admissions and encourage early diagnosis.

4. The cost of a community visiting-nurse services, and related home health services, for a limited number of visits. These will enable many older people to receive proper health care in their own homes.

The benefits would be available to everyone over 65 who is eligible for Social Security or railroad retirement benefits.

They would be entirely self-financed by an increase in Social Security contributions of one-quarter of 1 per cent each on employers and employees, and by an increase in the maximum earnings base subject to the Social Security tax of from $4,800 a year to $5,200 a year.

The issue is not whether the nation's 17 million older citizens should have medical care—it is how they can pay for it.

New Public Works Chief Is Named

Walter E. Nagel, 43, retired Army lieutenant colonel, has been appointed new public works superintendent for Corte Madera, Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow announced today.

Nagel, who lives at 58 Grenada Drive with his wife and four children, placed highest on the list of eligibles, Brandow said.

Nagel had served in the Army since 1940. He retired from his post as chief engineer for the supply and maintenance division of the Sixth Army at the Presidio of San Francisco in April, 1961.

His salary will be $648 per month, Brandow said.

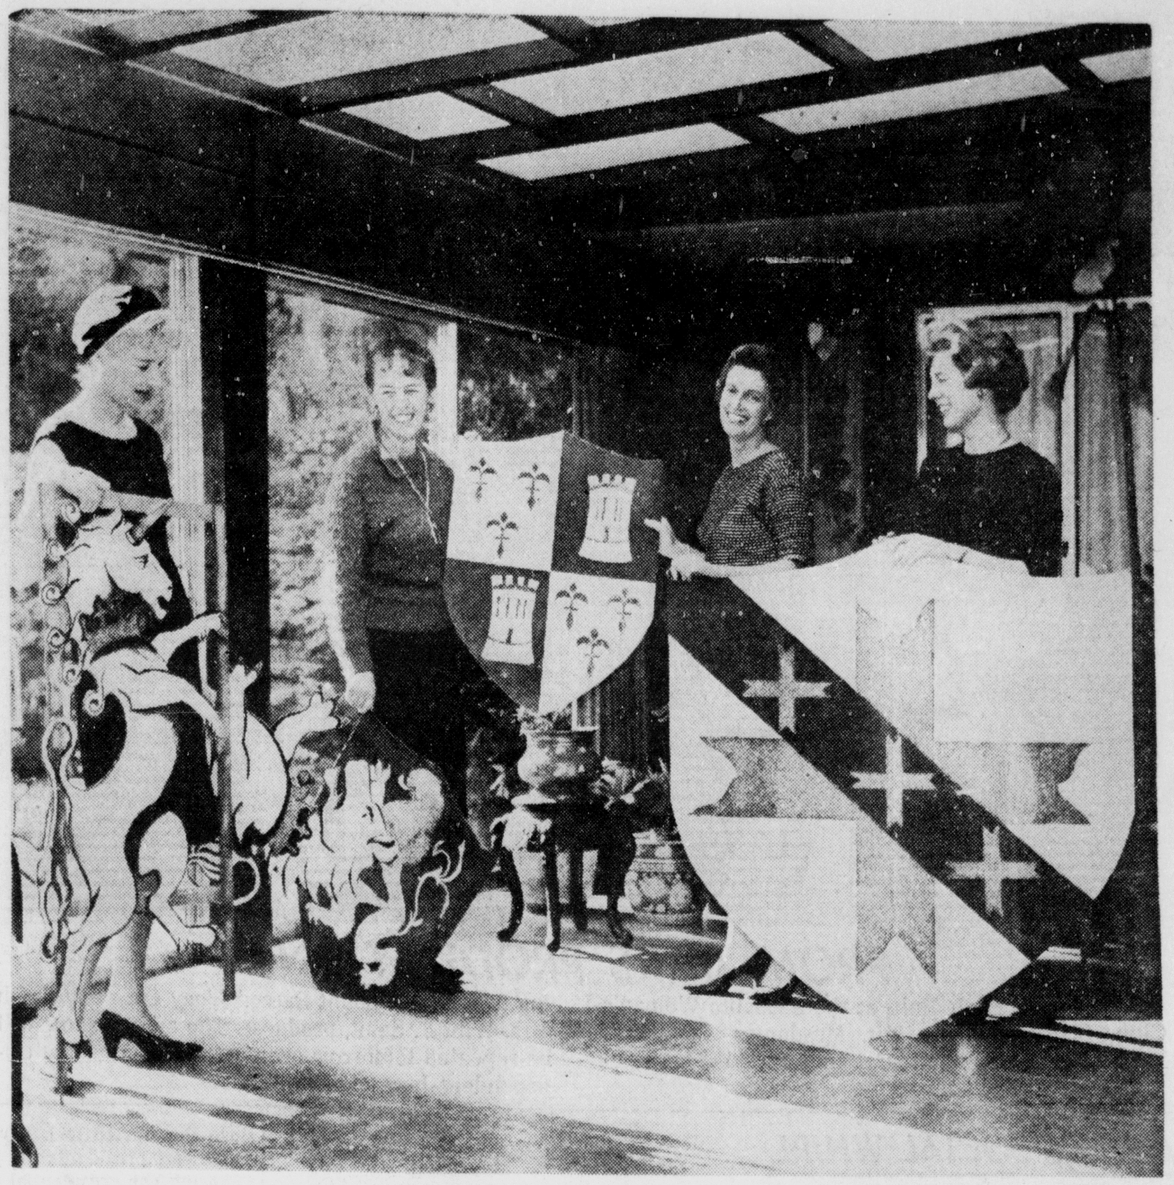
THE PALE PINK Dragon gets his makeup checked by cast members Mrs. John B. Willcutt, left, and Mrs. Max Thalen Jr. The latter during the two performances of the play for children will operate the 18 foot long, six legged creature from inside.



MARIN WOMEN have been engrossed in rehearsals and preparations of props, scenery and costumes for the new adult unit of the Junior Theatre of Marin's first venture, "The Pale Pink Dragon." Here key members of the Masque Unit gather props for their production. From left carrying fabled animals are Mrs. Basil Coleman and Mrs. James Heynemann, originator the group and now its production manager; with shield bearers, Mrs. T. E. Theiss Jr., unit president, and Mrs. George Stevenson, assistant director of "Dragon." Here the group works at the Heynemann home in Belvedere. The curtain will go up on the play March 24 at 10:30 a. m. and 2 p. m., at San Rafael High School auditorium.

Dragon, A Pale Pink Dragon...'

By BARBARA HOSMER

. . . And there was a witch and a cat, two princesses and other assorted royalty, and, as sometimes happens with such creatures, their paths crossed, leaving behind a tale designed to entrance even the most youthful and wigglesome of posterity . . .

The playing out of this episode from the days of castles and fire - breathing dragons has been set for March 24 and will mark the debut of the new Masque Unit of the Junior Theatre of Marin with its cast of 33 housewives. Hausfraus they may be, yet most are no strangers to the stage and its attendant occupations.

First Masque Unit director Mrs. Woodward Melone of Novato has directed high school drama and later studied costuming and stage design at New York's New School for Social Research with Carl Sandheimer and at the Eves Costume Agency. And, as did Mrs. Basil Coleman, another member of the "Dragon" cast, Joy Melone toured as an actress with the USO and played in television's first experimental full length musical comedy. Her experience in the field of interior decoration has proved useful in stage design as well.

JOAN COLEMAN, who plays "Dragon Fly," began by studying ballet and won a scholarship to Chalif School of Russian Ballet. She has toured in Europe and America as a dancer and was a Vogue model for several years.

Playing royalty are Mrs. Loris Di Grazia of San Francisco and Mrs. John B. Wilcutt of Kent Woodlands. Mrs. Di Grazia, until recently a Marinite, takes the role of "Princess Pinkie." She has worked with the Bliss Hayden Theatre in Los Angeles and was under contract to 20th Century Fox before her marriage. In Sausalito she directed the Junior Theatre children's workshops.

Wearing a long haired green wig as "Princess Pea Green," Mrs. Willcutt may not be easily recognizable to those who have seen her featured as a player in musical comedies of the Ross Valley Players.

AND WHILE Mrs. Max Thelen Jr. of San Rafael has a vital role in the children's production, she won't be seen at all. Still her experience with the drama group initiated by the famed Maude Adams will serve her in the role of the voice of the dragon, whose 18 foot length she will manipulate.

Light-footed "Hannibal" the cat — Mrs. L. E. Weisenburg Jr. of San Rafael — has been a dancer in two plays presented by the Junior League. Mrs. Joseph Guthrie of Ross will make her dramatic debut as the "King" in contrast to her offstage roles as Marin County state inheritance tax appraiser and in political work.

ALSO VETERANS of Junior League productions are Masque Unit president Mrs. Theodore E. Theiss of Mill Valley, who is a member of the Tam Valley Players, and Mrs. Donald Westerbeke of Mill Valley, who appeared in the Junior League's play "Suite Executive," last year. She'll be the "Witch," while Liz Theiss plays ''Edward Thrush" in the Dragon tale.

MRS. RUSSELL C. JORDAN, of Ross, who'll be "Prince Hal," has studied modern dance and art and is an interior decorator. Offstage she serves as a board member of the San Francisco Museum of Art. "Queen Contemptua"

FORMER VOGUE MODEL, Mrs. Basil Coleman of Tiburon holds a handmade lion prop for the Junior Theatre of Marin sponsored play in which she will be seen as "Dragon Fly." As a dancer Joan Coleman has toured in the United States and Europe. (Photos by Connie Beeson)

A LEAD PART in "Dragon" will be taken by Mrs. Di Grazia, a former Marinite now of San Francisco, who is shown during rehearsal of the play in San Rafael. She'll play "Princess Pinkie" in the final presentation in the Junior Theatre of Marin's winter series for children.

DIRECTING A DRAGON is the unusual task of Mrs. Woodward Melone, right, who is Masque Unit's first play director. Here she and Mrs. Di Grazia discuss the creature's dramatic abilities following rehearsal. The dragon, who has been residing at the Charles D. McPherson home in San Rafael, made his stage debut three years ago in a San Francisco production.

FROM JINKS PRODUCTION

Meadow Club Starts Dinner Dance Series Saturday Night

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

The St. Patrick's dinner and dancing party tomorrow night at the Meadow Club will initiate a series of intimate dinner dances there. Attendance is being restricted although 120 have made reservations for tomorrow night.

The idea of the smaller dinner parties was that of William (Bill) Hughes Jr. He and his wife and Fred Figone, president of the club, and his wife, Sarah, are in charge of the tomorrow night's St. Patrick's party. Cocktails will be served in the lounge and bells of Ireland and calla lilies will center the hors d'oeuvres table. The dining room will have a night supper club atmosphere with tables set back so there will be space for the dancers. A wall has been created on one side of the room which will be covered with shamrocks. Cocktails will be served at 7 p.m. preceding dinner.

MANY MARINITES attended the dinner given last night at the Fairmont Hotel honoring Norman Cousins, writer and lecturer, editor of the Saturday Review of Literature. Tables were reserved by Doctors and Mesdames Paul Kingsley and Joseph Gutstadt, Messrs. and Mesdames Dieter Schugt, William Bauer, Allan Chambliss, Max Thelan, Edward Lewis, John Wiley, Harold Watkin, William Ford, Carl Mosher and Mrs. Vernon Skewes-Cox.

Mr. Cousins is honorary national president of the United World Federalists. Its northern California members sponsored the dinner. More than 60 Marin residents attended the affair in the Grand Ballroom of the hotel and heard the United World Federalists dignitary speak on the "Peace Race."

IRAQ IN southwest Asia is the destination of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Athearn, who left their Mill Valley home Tuesday. Hope Athearn, an artist, who has always been interested in archaeology, longed to see the remains of the ancient cultures in Iraq. Her husband promised her that some day they would go to Asia so the trip is a fulfillment of her dream. The Athearns are also going to Rome and Majorca before they return home in mid-April. San Francisco friends are in their home during their absence.

THE PARIS EDITION of the New York Herald edition of March 6, telling of the gaiety at St. Moritz (Switzerland) in an article by Hebe Dorsey, reports on a San Rafael woman, Marcia Hoytt, wife of Jerry Hoytt. Marcia was second place winner at the dinner dance at Badrutt's Palace Hotel. It was attended by about 200 guests who, after the caviar-champagne dinner, elected at Lady St. Moritz. The article, after reporting Marcia's winning of the prize, said "Mrs. Marcia Hoytt, who won the audience's heart both by her brunette beauty and her candid self-presentation over the loudspeaker ('It's our first trip to Europe. Welcome from California. We have children'). Her dress, too, made a big impression. It was a black creation with 10 tiers of silk fringe which went flying in all directions as she and her husband performed a violent Twist."

HAIL AND FAREWELL were said at the cocktail party given by the William Hamiltons for 50 guests at their Mill Valley home Saturday. Honored were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Scott and Mrs. E. M. Shelton, all of Belvedere. The threesome recently returned from the Orient and in a few weeks Mrs. Shelton will take off again, this time for Europe.

HOSTESSES at parties in their homes before the Sausalito Women's Club Founders' Day luncheon yesterday were Mesdames King Hettrich, George R. Chapman and Stanley Cowen.

Mrs. Hettrich's cocktail party was the fifth annual one since she started to honor the club's past presidents the year following her presidential year 1956-1957. Her guests included not only the past presidents but women who were members of the club when Mrs. Hettrich joined it in 1930. Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Cowen gave sherry parties for their friends.

Tips On Makeup

Makeup experts for one chain of beauty salons suggest this method of making the eyelashes look heavier than they are. Before applying mascara, pat powder lightly on the lashes. Then, when your mascara goes on, the eyelashes have a "more luxurious" look, they said.

Seymour-Gaston Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. Gaston of South Haven, Mich., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Donna Lee, to Kent Stevens Seymour of Mill Valley.

The future benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Osborn Seymour of Mill Valley.

The bride-elect was graduated from Michigan State University where she was affiliated with Alpha Phi sorority. She has three brothers, Paul, Richard and Robert Gaston.

The prospective bridegroom is the brother of Mrs. H. Frederick Franklin of Menlo Park and Susan Seymour, a senior at Stanford University. He was graduated from Stanford where he was a member of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity. He served in the U. S. Navy and is now employed with the H. I. Thompson Fiberglass Co.

The wedding will be an event of June 30 in South Haven.

Cruising Club Auxiliary Plans St. Pat's Dinner

Plans for the grand opening of their new clubhouse on March 24 and for a corned beef and cabbage dinner tomorrow night were discussed at Tuesday night's meeting of the Sausalito Cruising Club Auxiliary.

Club members will observe St. Patrick's day with the corned beef and cabbage dinner to be served at 7:30 p.m. after a cocktail hour starting at 6 p.m. General chairman is Rear Commodore Alex Coutts, and tickets are being handled by Mesdames Joseph Hakl and Roy Schwartz.

Auxiliary president Mrs. Alfred Lawson also named permanent committee heads at Tuesday night's meeting. They are Mesdames Newton B. McCarthy, Marin publicity; Richard Hays, San Francisco publicity; Russell Papenhausen and Roland Dover, sunshine committee, and McCarthy, Papenhausen and Harry Kramer, decorating.

Grand Guardian Visits 3 Bethels

Mrs. Adeline Moorehead, grand guardian of the State of California, International Order of Job's Daughters, paid her official visit recently to Bethels No. 48, San Rafael; No. 119, Mill Valley; and No. 246 at Larkspur.

Before the Tri-Bethel meeting a pot luck dinner was served. Initiation followed with Honored Queens Cheri Moore, San Rafael; Jean Treverton, Mill Valley; and Lotus Schaffer, Larkspur presiding.

Those initiated were Carolyn Grisson and Gay Waugh of San Rafael; Pamela Robin and Vernoca Gelardi of Mill Valley; and Frances Lynn Adams, Barbara Cala, and Rozan Funday of Larkspur.

Young Ladies Institutes Plan Diamond Jubilee Celebration

The Young Ladies Institute, an organization of Catholic women on the West Coast and Hawaii will celebrate its 75th Diamond Jubilee Birthday this year.

The four Marin chapters will mark the occasion on March 25 with a Diamond Jubilee Communion Breakfast followed by 8 a.m. mass and breakfast at St. Patrick's Hall in Larkspur.

Marin chapters include Lagan of San Rafael; St. Anselm's San Anselmo; Rosarium of Larkspur and Star of the Sea, Sausalito.

Oldest of the North Bay Institutes of which Marin is a part is Lagan named after the Rev. Hugh Lagan, the first resident pastor of St. Raphael's Church in San Rafael.

Lagan YLI was one of the first Catholic groups of women who were active in many projects for the benefit of St. Raphael's Church. All of the YLI groups have many welfare projects of various types, but outstanding is the one big charity project in which all of the YLI groups of Marin and Sonoma counties jointly with the YMI groups known as the "Redwood Empire District" work on, and that is the Albertinium Orphanage of Ukiah.

Each year the Redwood Empire District gives the Albertinium School a Christmas party. In addition they provide all the playground equipment for these children and all athletic equipment for sport events.

Reservations for the Diamond Jubilee Breakfast on March 25 can be made by calling Mrs. Harold Solari.

Masquers Rehearsing 'Dragon'

will be played by Mrs. Paul Atkins of Larkspur who taught puppetry in the summers during her years at University of California at Santa Barbara.

Unison speaking parts will be taken by Mrs. Charles D. McPherson and Mrs. Edward French, both of San Rafael. The former studied drama in Hollywood and the latter has had a career in personnel and public relations work and is now active with the Symphony Guild of Marin.

MASQUE UNIT adult workshop is the brainchild of Mrs. James L. Heynemann of Belvedere, charter member of the Junior Theatre of Marin. Last fall she invited a group of Marin women who were interested and experienced in dramatics, and each brought an additional member to the group, which plans to present a play for Marin children each year.

The 33 member group went into rehearsal many weeks ago. Helping Mrs. Melone with directing chores is Mrs. George Stevenson of Mill Valley, and Mrs. Marion Hayes Cain has assisted as an adviser.

Mrs. J. Stuart Harrison of Kentfield is costumes chairman and Mrs. R. J. MacLaury of Tiburon is chairman for the music, which will include a student orchestra. Props, which have been made by members except for the dragon himself, are headed by Mrs. W. Coleman Edgar of Ross and Mrs. Richard Beamish of Mill Valley.

Other Masque Unit members working include Mesdames E. W. Bullard Jr., G. D. Becker, H. B. Grandin, James McLaughlin, Leslie Smith and William Niccolls, all of Ross; J. S. Harrison and August Belden of Kentfield; Kirk Frederick, Barbara Raymond and Mary Jane Langlais of San Rafael; Nathan Smith of Sausalito; E. S. Kilgore Jr. and Duane Beeson of Tiburon and Eloise Rosendahl of Novato.

Mrs. Louis Palleschi of Greenbrae is taking birthday reservations for the production.

Interracial Romances Ended Fastest Through Separation

"Our daughter loves a boy of another race," a frantic mother writes. "She is 15. The boy is a star athlete in high school. Many girls tried to catch his attention. Our girl succeeded. The two of them have been dating secretly. Our daughter is not going to have a baby, but only because she has been lucky. I've checked on the boy's record. He has been in the juvenile hall several times. His father is in the state prison. He succeeds at school because of his athletic ability.

What can we do to separate them? We cannot have him arrested and risk a scandal. Do we have to approve a marriage we know would be disastrous? Help us, for we are heartbroken!"

I'm very sorry for what has happened. Interracial dating is more common now than formerly. I suppose eventually Americans will accept it. As of now, we don't. You need not consent to a disastrous marriage. The young people cannot marry without your approval. If you remain adamant they'll be blocked.

Is there a counselor your daughter knows and trusts? If so, arrange for her to have many interviews. Probably she will not listen to your advice, but she might accept suggestions from a counselor. See the boy's favorite coach at high shool and explain the situation to him. Ask him to confer with the boy. He may be able to persuade him to stop seeing your girl.

If this doesn't succeed, lower the boom. Forbid further contacts. Establish an indirect 24-hour surveillance, to make sure they remain separated. If possible have your girl move away for a year or so. Are there relatives in another state she could live with or a good private school she might attend? In such love affairs, absence does not make the heart grow fonder. If they can be separated for a year they'll lose interest in each other. For the sake of all concerned you should not weaken.

(A) Many children do naughty things hoping to be caught. Then they'll be the center of attention. Your son is not unusual.

Here's Best Played Hand Of The World Championship

Picking out the best-played hand of a nine-day world championship is like rolling over a catnip. Here's the one I liked best of the 864 hands played last month:

Opening lead — ♣ 2

If you're wondering about the bidding, South's two-heart opening was a weak two-bid. North's response of two no-trump showed a real interest in game and asked South to show how good his opening bid was.

South bid three diamonds to show side strength in that suit and good values for his opening bid. This was enough to set North on the slam trail, by way of the Blackwood Convention.

Lew Mathe, of Los Angeles, began by taking dummy's top clubs. What was the best discard from his own hand on the second club?

Mathe discarded a spade, foreseeing a position that might develop two tricks later. Then it was time to tackle the trumps.

PERCENTAGE PLAY: The percentage play in trumps is to play the ace and king in the hope of dropping the queen. The old rule for finessing against the queen is: "With eight ever, with nine never."

Still, Mathe did take a finesse. He cashed the ace of hearts and then led a low heart to finesse with dummy's ten.

This finesse was against percentage if you consider the trump suit all by itself, but it was a gem of a play if you consider the hand as a whole.

The finesse happened to win, and Mathe had no further problem. He could take the spade finesse after drawing the last trump, since if the spade finesse lost he would have a discard for his losing diamond.

The beauty of finessing on the second round of trumps was that the hand was virtually assured even if the finesse lost. If East could win the second trump trick, he would have to make a favorable return lead. Any return would give Mathe either a cinch or a virtual certainty of making his slam.

DAILY QUESTION: As dealer, you hold:

♣ A K

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one diamond. If partner responds in spades, you can raise to game. If he makes any other response you can jump in notrump to show your power.

NOTICE OF INTENDED SALE AND TRANSFER OF LIQUOR LICENSE AND DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN under the provisions of Section 3440.1 of the Civil Code of the State of California, by JAMES S. TODT, RICHARD W. TODT and JAMES W. CRAIG, as intended transferors of the intended transfer of an alcoholic beverage license.

The following is a statement of the information concerning said proposed transfer:

JAMES S. TODT, RICHARD W. TODT and JAMES W. CRAIG, whose address is 1547 Fourth Street, San Rafael, California, are the only names appearing on the license intended to be transferred; said persons are presently doing business under the name and style of the "ALIBI CLUB."

JAMES W. CRAIG, residing at 1547 Fourth Street, San Rafael, California is the intended transferee whose name is intended to appear on the license in the future, and who shall do business under the firm name and style of "ALIBI CLUB."

The kind of license intended to be transferred is an On-Sale General Liquor License, and the address of the premises presently designated on said license is 1547 Fourth Street, San Rafael, California.

There is an agreement between the parties to the transfer that the consideration for the transfer of the business and license or licenses, if any there be, is to be paid only after the transfer is approved by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. Time of transfer on day State transfers license, a day not yet determined.

The full amount of the purchase price or consideration for the transfer of the business and license, without deceit or fraud, is Eight Thousand Two Hundred Fifty ($8,250.00) Dollars

The following is a statement concerning the list of items to be transferred: Leasehold interest; the firm name, "ALIBI CLUB"; Stock in goods, wares and merchandise; and the furniture, fixtures and leasehold improvements.

NOTICE IS ALSO HEREBY GIVEN that the partnership heretofore exisiting among JAMES S. TODT, RICHARD W. TODT and JAMES W. CRAIG, under the firm name of "ALIBI CLUB," doing business at 1547 Fourth Street, San Rafael, California, has been this day dissolved by mutual consent. JAMES S. TODT and RICHARD W. TODT have retired from said firm and business but JAMES W. CRAIG will continue the business at 1547 Fourth Street, under the name of "ALIBI CLUB."

All debts due and owing to said partnership will be received by the escrow holder and all demands on the partnership are to be passed to him for payment.

The place where the purchase price or consideration for the transfer of the business and license is to be paid is at the office of HAROLD R. HAYES, Attorney at Law, 1010 B Street, San Rafael, California.

The name and address of the escrow holder is HAROLD R. HAYES, Attorney at Law, 1010 B Street, San Rafael, California.

DATED: This day of March 12, 1962.

Overtime shall not be less than one and one-half (1½) times the above rates.

Sundays and holidays shall not be less than one and one-half (1½) times the above rates. The holidays upon which such rates shall be paid shall be all holidays recognized in the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the particular craft, classification or type of workman employed on the project.

It shall be mandatory upon the Contractor to whom the contract is awarded and upon any subcontractor under him to pay not less than the said specified rates to all laborers, workmen and mechanics employed by them in the execution of the contract.

Proposals will be considered for the complete job only. The proposal must be submitted on the form provided and must be accompanied by a Certified Check, Cash, Post Office Money Order or Bid Bond as a guarantee that the bidder will, if successful, promptly execute a satisfactory contract and furnish bonds as required by these specifications. The Certified Check, Cash, Post Office Money Order or Bid Bond shall be not less than ten (10) percent of the total amount of the bid and shall be made payable to the Treasurer of the Marin Municipal Water District.

The envelope enclosing the proposal must have stated thereon "Proposal for the Installation of Water Mains in Homestead Valley, Kent Woodlands, Tamalpais Valley and Tiburon, Marin County, California".

Specifications may be obtained at 874 - 4th Street, the office of the District. The $25.00 deposit required for each set of specifications will be refunded when specifications are returned to the District. It is requested that those Contractors wishing a Water District representative to accompany them on their first visit to the site of the work, notify the District sufficiently in advance so that necessary arrangements may be made.

Progress payments will be made.

Larkspur $23,500
Early American charm: newly-painted, barn red with white trim. Completely fenced yard, front and back. Nice large patio, fruit trees, lath-covered arbor. Fully-producing avocado tree. 4 bedrooms, 2 baths, large kitchen. Near Redwood High, elementary school; on quiet street, close to shops, bus.

San Anselmo $23,500
Lovely garden, level corner lot. Precise paths among flowering shrubs and bulbs. Covered garden room, trees, lawn. Fenced. 2 bedroom house, immaculate, nicely arranged with central hall plan. Tile kitchen. Plenty of storage. Convenient to shops, bus.

Corte Madera $38,500
Built like a fortress by a builder who included the best in his own home. Massive concrete foundation, 4 bedrooms, 2½ baths, dining room, workshop, large clean storeroom (could be another workshop or study.) Beautifully landscaped third acre: brick patio just off living area, covered barbecue patio; horseshoe court; tall redwood grove gives park-like feeling. Waterfall, reflecting pool. Brick raised flower beds are curved around the entire garden. Convenient to shops, bus.

Sleepy Hollow $39,500
Style and comfort are here in this custom-built home: marble fireplace in gracious living room, well-designed floor plan, large kitchen (14 x 18 ft.) with separate storage and utility rooms. Wide lawn and garden stretches out from glass walls of living and dining rooms. Two bedrooms, den, 1½ baths.

San Anselmo $52,500
Well-constructed, delightfully planned by an outstanding architect (Joseph Esherick), this V-shaped home takes maximum advantage of its wooded view location, on a terraced acre. Beautiful entrance patio created by colorful bank of azaleas under a spreading oak. 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, redwood paneling throughout. Swimming pool, three patios, garage, carport, plenty of parking and turn-around area.

Del Mesa $72,500
Magnificent view across rooftops, trees and valley to the San Francisco skyline beyond the bay. Lovely family home with five bedrooms, family room, separate dining room, nice kitchen. Decks around the living room and dining room for view enjoyment. The driveway approach is level, and the entrance garden is attractive and inviting. Ross School District. Well-priced.

Bayside Acres $79,500
A delightful "house of tomorrow" with livable modern features. Designed by Clarence Mayhew, it has a view from every room, across the bay and two bridges, with wooded island and yachting activity in the foreground. Beautiful view terrace runs the length of the house, whose setting is private. Protected swimming pool area, with dressing room and bath. Formica lines the bathroom walls, glass doors slide open to the terrace from every room. Indoor barbecue is backed on the pool terrace with an outside rotisserie. Two-way fireplace serves both dining and living room areas; birch and redwood paneling throughout. Copper hood over ceramic tile stove counter (built-in electric stove with 2 ovens.)

Kent Woodlands $87,500
Exciting geometric pattern created by circular swimming pool and square brick terrace adjoining it. Comfortable home, well-arranged floor plan, imaginative decor throughout. Family room off electric kitchen; 5 bedrooms, 3 baths, as well as maid's room and bath. A nice extra is the sink and barbecue counter on the swimming pool terrace, perfect for summertime entertaining. Privacy and a wooded view.

For the Discriminating

This spacious home is one that truly accomplishes the purpose of its design—gracious country living. From the louvered doors of the separate dining room that open out upon 800 ft. of living room area (ingeniously designed to provide space for much furniture that won't obstruct the hilltop view of mountain and trees in both directions), to the master bedroom suite with its dressing room, to the 2,000 ft. of concrete patio overhung by a graceful old oak tree, the details testify to the careful planning this beautiful homesite deserves. 4 bedrooms, TV room, 2½ baths, floor to ceiling used brick fireplace against redwood panefed wall, dining area in kitchen, and closets galore, detached level space for swimming pool—here is the county's best buy for a discriminating buyer—all on a hilltop LEVEL lot in exclusive restricted neighborhood. $54,750. Code #214(a).

SPECIAL '61 Buick Specials

Skylark Coupe $2695
Here's probably the rarest car on the used car market today. We've just taken this popular little compace coupe in trade on a new Buick. It's got just over 8,000 original miles and you can't tell it from the new ones on our floor. This car his the market last spring and soon became the best seller we've ever had. All the trade magazines rate it the best buy on the market. This coupe is a close to new as you can get it. Not a mark of year or abuse anywhere. Power steering, Dynaflow transmission, radio, heater, w-w tires and all the Buick extras. This car costs around $3,700 new. A real buy.

4-Dr. Sedan $2395
This one is an all-white sedan that we just took in trade on a new '62 Buick LeSabre. Original owner has put just over 8,000 miles on this little compact that has the small V8 engine that burns regular gas and will average close to 23 miles per gallon on the highway. Dynaflow, radio, heater and other Buick features. Not a scratch on this car. Clean as a whistle and without a scratch anywhere.

Radio Hams Oppose Fees For Licenses

Marin Amateur Radio Club has unanimously voted to oppose proposed charging of fees for amateur radio licenses by the Federal Communications Commission.

The group approved sending a letter to the American Radio Relay League supporting their stand against the proposed fees ranging from $2 to $250. Present policy of the FCC is to grant amateur licenses without charge.

Teacher Pay Discussed At Stinson

Bolinas-Stinson School District trustees Monday discussed a revised salary schedule for the district's five teachers but took no action.

Teachers are to prepare a proposed salary schedule, to be discussed again at the trustees' March 28 meeting. The board has agreed that a raise is in the offing, said clerk Arthur E. Carpenter.

Budget increases for next year of $500 for more library facilities, $500 for scientific facilities and $1,500 for expanding the supply storage area were proposed last night. A part-time teacher may be hired to relieve principal James Matranga for more principal duties. The budget will be discussed again March 28.

New Trustee Ben Roark sat in last night for his first meeting.

Arts, Crafts Gallery

Axel Nordell of Mill Valley will open an arts and crafts shop and gallery, called "Arabesk," on April 24 at 1843 Union Street in San Francisco. Nordell, a sculptor and craftsman, lives at 39 Lomita Drive.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Personal Casualty Losses Deductible

By PETER J. WIKEL, C.P.A.

On your California and federal return traveling expenses in connection with your employment can be deducted to arrive at your adjusted gross income. This means you can also claim the standard deduction or itemize, whichever is better for you.

P. J. Wikel

Out-of-town travel expenses — traveling "away from home" means going away from the city or town where you normally work and remaining away at least overnight. "Travel expenses" means the cost of transportation fares, meals, and lodging, and includes porters' tips, hire of public stenographers, baggage charges, and similar expenses necessary to travel. Travel expenses do not include entertainment or any presonal expenses such as laundry.

Other transportation expenses—Even though you do not travel away from home, you can deduct transportation expenses paid in connection with your work. Transportation expenses include payments for actual travel or, if you use your own car, the business share of the cost of operation, including fuel, repairs, and depreciation.

Outside salesmen can deduct all their ordinary and necessary business expenses. This applies only to full-time outside salesmen. It does not apply to one whose principal activities consist of service and delivery.

Any reimbursement of these expenses must be included in your income. Attach a statement to your return explaining in detail the expenses you deduct. Internal Revenue Service provides form 2106 for this purpose.

Transportation expenses do not include the expense of commuting to and from work. Commuting is a personal living expense and is not deductible.

'Two Women' Is A Grim, Realistic Drama Of Life In War-Torn Italy

By LES DARD
LARK THEATER

"Two Women," now showing, is a triumph for its Italian director, Vittorio De Sica, a new dimension for its star, Sophia Loren, and a refreshingly realistic look at the ugly side of war.

In short, this is an extraordinary picture.

The drama of war-torn Italy is concerned with efforts of a peasant woman to shelter her delicate daughter from the cruelties of war. To escape Allied bombs in Rome, the widow takes her child to a small mountain village.

There they live frugally and make friends with an earnest young anti-Fascist teacher who brings love and compassion into both their lives.

But this is not a pretty story with a happy ending. The teacher is shot to death by escaping Germans. Mother and daughter are assaulted by Moroccan soldiers and left shamed and stunned.

BARDOT GOES DRAMATIC—An unidentified young man dances with Brigitte Bardot in a French cafe in a scene from "The Truth," now showing at the Fairfax Fine Arts Theater. In this, Brigette's first serious role, she plays a gay, happy, nice girl who is led astray on the wicked, depraved Left Bank of Paris. Her innocence is corrupted and she ends by committing murder. It is her lover she slays.

TAMALPAIS THEATER
A China-based comedy-melodrama starring William Holden, Clifton Webb and France Nuyen, "Satan Never Sleeps," opens Sunday.

The CinemaScope picture, in color, is placed in China in 1949, when the Communists were taking over. Adapted from a Pearl Buck story, it tells about growing persecution of Catholic missionaries by the Reds.

Holden and Webb play priests, and the pretty Miss Nuyen plays a Chinese girl, whose attachment for Holden gives the film its lighter moments.

NOVATO THEATER
An excellent double bill opens Sunday: "Pocketful of Miracles" and "Dark at the Top of the Stairs."

The former stars Bette Davis as Apple Annie in a Damon Runyan comedy about Annie's transformation from a beggar to a lady-for-a-day. Glenn Ford and Hope Longe co-star as Dave the Dude and his girl friend.

"Dark at the Top of the Stairs" is the film translation of William Inge's stage hit. Robert Preston plays the harness salesman out of a job with the dawn of the auto age, Dorothy McGuire his unhappy wife.

FAIRFAX THEATER
Brigitte Bardot suffers through her stellar role in "The Truth."

The French film is a courtroom drama with a series of flashbacks seeking the truth about a murder committed by Bardot, who plays a good girl who went bad on Paris' Left Bank and then killed her lover.

MOTOR MOVIES
The moving story of Franklin Delano Roosevelt's triumph over polio is told brilliantly in "Sunrise at Campobello," opening tonight.

Based on the prize-winning Broadway play by Dore Schary, the picture stars Ralph Bellamy in a vivid, perfect portrayal of FDR. Greer Garson is cast as Mrs. Roosevelt.

SEQUOIA THEATER
A ghost story to tantalize even the most blase among you comes Sunday to Mill Valley in "The Innocents."

Based on the novel "Turn of the Screw" by Henry James, the picture stars Deborah Kerr as an English governess who takes charge of two orphaned youngsters housed in a huge, eerie mansion.

The children seem possessed by evil spirits, and Miss Kerr sets out to do battle with them.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE
The film version of "Compulsion" is a suspenseful story based on "the crime of the century"— the cynical, senseless murder in 1924 of little Bobby Franks by Leopold and Loeb.

Although names of the principals have been changed, the frenzy aroused by the slaying still seethes in the movie. Bradford Dillman and Dean Stockwell play the misguided, thrill-seeking geniuses trapped by chance and dogged police work.

RAFAEL THEATER
The saucy, gag-a-minute "Lover Come Back" stays another week at the Rafael, starring "Pillow Talk" trio Doris Day, Rock Hudson and Tony Randall. The plot whirls around New York's Madison avenue and the advertising game.

Homestead Potluck

The Homestead Valley Improvement Club will hold its annual potluck dinner at 7 p.m. April 28, at Brown's Hall, vice president Jo Schlesinger said today.

'H-Bomb Father,' Dr. Teller, To Talk At College

Dr. Edward Teller, Hungarian-born nuclear physicist and "Father of the H-Bomb," will be featured speaker May 22 on College of Marin's 1961-62 concert and lecture series.

Teller's talk, scheduled for 8 p.m. in Olney Hall, will be on "The Legacy of Hiroshima." This is the title of the physicist's book, written with Allen Brown of Mill Valley, which was published only this month.

For several years, Teller has been the country's leading exponent of the survival value of underground fallout shelters, the need for continued nuclear weapons tests, and the urgency of keeping ahead of Russia in science.

Teller is associate director of the University of California radiation laboratory at Livermore and teaches at U.C. in Berkeley.

His talk will be the final program in the college's spring series.

OLD AND NEW IN CENTRAL AMERICA

This scene of contrast of an ox-drawn cart and a modern truck in a Central American town is from a color film produced and to be narrated in person by Dwight Nichols at San Rafael High School auditorium next Thursday at 8 p.m. The film is the third in the 1962 "World Around Us" series sponsored by the Boyd Museum of San Rafael. Tickets will be on sale at the auditorium on the night of the performance.

FESTIVAL IN CORTE MADERA

'Rio Carnaval' Takes You To Brazil

By RALPH CHATOIAN

"Carnaval in Rio" really makes an attempt to take you to Brazil to join the annual festivities prior to Ash Wednesday.

The "Carnaval (Brazilian spelling of carnival) was presented last Friday and Saturday night at the Corte Madera Recreation Center and will be presented again tonight and tomorrow at 8 p.m.

The show includes dances by Marin County dance groups, individual dancers and even members and wives of the sponsoring Corte Madera Lions Club.

The show starts with a skit explaining the meaning and reason of "Carnaval" celebrations in Brazil prior to Ash Wednesday. The skit is carried along by the acting of Ernest Widlund and Amold Anderson.

One of the most entertaining dances is done by a group of youngsters who show a surplus of talent. The little ensemble is made up of Alexis, Igor and Ludie Sill, Kathy Crespo, Janet Simpson and Diane Mench.

The Tatarian Frances School of ballet dancers do an unusual voodoo number with florescent costumes.

The show, split into three acts, is similar to the actual three days of the Brazilian celebrations which come to a wild finish just before midnight on the eve of Ash Wednesday.

The speed is markedly increased through each act. The final act speeds up the fervor of the entrie show.

It closes with a tremendous popping of balloons and tossing of serpentine by cast and audience alike. By then, it is the finale of the celebrations. And you know it.

One thing is apparent. That is the month of preparation which went into making "Carnaval in Rio." B. A. Sill and his wife "Gigi" went all-out in making the "Carnaval." "Gigi" who produced and directed the show is a native Brazilian who was able to give it authenticity.

Strawberry Summer Recreation Discussed

Strawberry Property Owners Assn. directors discussed summer recreation this week and decided to sound out residents' opinions on whether there should be a program this summer. The subject will be gone over again April 9, treasurer James L. Clark said.

Directors also talked about proposed incorporation of Tiburon and a proposed high school site for the Tiburon Peninsula but took no action.

Applications Available For Peace Corps

Applications for the Peace Corps are available at the San Rafael Post Office, Postmaster Warren H. Williams announced today.

Volunteers must be United States citizens at least 18 years old with the equivalent of a high school education. Married couples are eligible if both qualify and there are no dependents under 18 years of age.

Two hundred seventy-six million pounds of honey were produced in the United States in 1961.

Some dragonflies migrate hundreds of miles each year. These insects are as agile as the hummingbird.

Murder No Joke—Except In Ross

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

The Ross Valley Players have done it again.

"The Gazebo," which opened last weekend at the Barn of the Marin Art and Garden Center and will be presented there again tonight, tomorrow, March 23 and 24, at 8:30 p.m., is slickly professional—as this amateur theater group's productions are nowadays expected to be.

Murder is no joke — except in "The Gazebo." But an unwanted corpse and a pair of villainous blackmailers become screamingly funny in Alec Coppel's clever play as produced by Charles E. Sayers and directed by Marion Hayes Cain.

This reviewer attended the show with two friends who had just returned from New York where they saw three Broadway productions. They were as happily entertained as any others in the audience (which should have been larger).

It would be hard to say whether Jim Urquhart as TV writer Elliott Nash or Glory Stevens as his actress wife, Nell, plays the more expertly. Both these Ross Valley veterans fit into their roles as though the parts had been written for them.

The gazebo is Nell's idea—but the body underneath it is Elliott's idea.

Special mention is due to John Lea as the district attorney. Lea was a last-minute pinch-hitter who entered the cast with opening night only a few days away after another actor dropped out. You'd never know it from his performance.

Ben Borden is thoroughly at home as the Dook, one of the blackmailers. George Shistar is equally so as his partner, Louie.

Ably filling out the cast are Reggie Waldon as the real estate woman (a casting natural if there ever was one), Lois Wilson, Bill Waldon, Don Wilson, Paul Schaefer and Bill McCann.
